1. "DON'T STOP" was a #3 hit in the summer of 1977 for Fleetwood Mac. It's from their "Rumours" album -- the biggest selling album ever for a Rock band -- more than 20 Million albums and still counting. So, there was the Fleetwood... the big beat drummer of the group, Mic Fleetwood, himself -- watchin' the Democratic Convention on TV last year, just like the rest of us -- when he got a big surprise -- they're playing Fleetwood Mac's recording of "DON'T STOP" as Bill Clinton's entrance music!

MICK FLEETWOOD ACTUALITY: (:21) "I actually heard it in the background at my apartment and thought somebody ripped us off! You know, had written a song that had elements of "DON'T STOP" in it and of course, then I realized it was us! And it was fifteen years ago and you've forgotten what you've sounded like, Mick! I'm sure they'll probably play it at the inauguration. And they're literally using it as their anthem, really".

2. "IF I EVER FALL IN LOVE", is the first hit for a new group called Shai. These four guys are out of Washington, D.C. And that's where their song, and their story began:

SHAI ACTUALITY: (:42) "Actually, the song, "IF I EVER FALL IN LOVE" is actually the demo we did. It's the demo with four edits. We had the demo done and we were shopping around a lot of places. Groove met up with one of the program directors, WPEC at a softball game, and they got to talking and everything and Groove passed on the tape of our demo, you know, and Paco said that he might play it. Their 'home jams' segment on the radio, where they play a lot of local acts, turns out that everybody liked it, started getting a lot of requests! I was acting like I was three or four different people! Ha ha! I was a girl one time! Ha ha! We got 77 requests the first day, I think all of them were ours! Ha ha. Then we stopped. Amazingly, they kept going!"
