

EPISODE #050

“MISERY LOVES COMPANY”

Steve has a nightmare that he has failed all of his school courses and has to repeat his junior year. He awakens in a cold sweat, relieved that it was only a dream. At the Peach Pit he tells Brandon about it and they discuss their summer vacation plans.

Brenda leaves with Donna and Kelly, telling her mother they are going shopping for swimsuits. Jim Walsh lends her his credit card, relieved that she seems to have gotten over her depression about not being allowed to see Dylan. On a quiet suburban street Kelly pulls over and Brenda gets out. She runs across to join Dylan in his car. She has lied to her parents.

Kelly discusses with Donna their planned Paris trip. Kelly is excited but Donna seems less enthusiastic about leaving town because her parents are separating. She feels she might keep them together if she stays at home.

At the Peach Pit, Brandon picks up his final pay check before going to work at the Beverly Hills Beach Club for the summer. Steve notices how little Brandon gets paid. He comments that it is only pizza money. Brandon tells him he doesn't know what it is to hold down a job. They make a bet that Steve can't do Brandon's job at the Peach Pit. Steve accepts the challenge.

At their rendezvous at the beach, Brenda and Dylan discuss his relationship with Brenda's father. Dylan wants to have his trust fund moved away from Jim Walsh. Brenda thinks this is a bad move.

Brandon starts his summer job at the Beach Club. Henry tells him they've added playground equipment for young children. Henry tells Brandon that his own sporting goods store was burned during the recent rioting in the South Central area of the town.

Brandon spots Brenda and Dylan on a quiet part of the beach. He is surprised that Brenda has lied to their parents and is seeing Dylan on the sly. Brandon reminds them that he is not passing judgement on their behavior and it is their problem to work out, not his.

Episode 050 – Page 2

At home, Brenda almost slips up while talking to her parents about the day's events. Her parents sense that something is up, but are not sure what. At the Peach Pit, Steve is working as a waiter and not doing a very good job. Brandon drops by to check up on him.

At his office, Jim Walsh has a business meeting with Dylan to discuss the trust. Jim tells Dylan only his mother can change the trusteeship. At Dylan's house, Brenda and Dylan discuss their future together and the secrecy they must endure. At the Beach Club, a very pregnant Jackie Taylor-Silver and Kelly are moving into their cabana for the summer.

Henry tells Brandon that Andrea has signed on as kiddie counselor for the summer. Brandon has mixed feelings about this. He feels having Andrea on the job might cramp his activities with other girls. To cheer up Brenda, Jim and Cindy tell her they have a surprise for her. Brenda says she's made plans already for the day. Jim and Cindy move into a beach cabana they have rented for the summer.

Brandon is surprised but then panics when he remembers that Brenda and Dylan are together on the beach. He rushes to warn them. Brenda, not knowing that her parents have already seen her with Dylan, goes to them. They are furious with her for lying to them. A violent argument follows.

At the Peach Pit, the gang is discussing what happened at the beach. Steve is still at his waiter's job, but with less enthusiasm. Brandon says that after what happened at the beach, he hates to go home. A tall, good-looking guy comes in. Andrea waves to him and motions him over to the table. She introduces him as Jay Thurman, a college student who used to be the editor of the West Beverly Blaze. Andrea tells them proudly that Jay is doing an intern job with CNN at the Republican convention. Everyone is suitably impressed.

At the Walsh home, it is discovered that Brenda has moved out with most of her clothes. She has moved in with Dylan. Nat complains to Brandon that Steve is simply not suitable for the job. He asks Brandon to tell Steve.

Jim Walsh goes to Dylan's house looking for Brenda. Dylan tells him Brenda doesn't want to see him. Jim gets furious and leaves. Steve finally gives up and admits he is not cut out to be a waiter. He pays off the bet to Brandon.

Episode 050 – Page 3

David tells Kelly that Donna's parents have made up and the divorce is off. Kelly's mother comes in and announces she's going into labor with the baby. David gets the car out and they head for the hospital.

Brandon tells his parents that maybe the whole problem doesn't have so much to do with Dylan as it does with the fear of Brenda growing up too fast. Brenda tells Dylan she feels guilty about moving out from home and hurting her parents. Dylan sleeps on the couch and Brenda in his bed.

STARRING

Jason Priestley.....	Brandon Walsh
Shannon Doherty	Brenda Walsh
Carol Potter.....	Cindy Walsh
James Eckhouse	Jim Walsh
Luke Perry.....	Dylan McKay
Jennie Garth	Kelly Taylor
Ian Ziering.....	Steve Sanders
Brian Austin Green	David Silver
Doug Emerson.....	Scott Scalon
Gabrielle Carteris.....	Andrea Zuckerman
Tori Spelling	Donna Martin

EPISODE #051

“TWINS, THE TRUSTEE AND BIG TRIP”

David and Kelly are at the hospital to see the new baby. David is video taping the infant.

Jim and Cindy Walsh are getting up. Jim is in a foul mood, still upset over the fact that Brenda is living at Dylan's house. Cindy advises him that threatening a lawsuit isn't going to bring the family together again.

Brenda is running the vacuum cleaner at Dylan's house. Dylan is not at his best sop early in the morning. They discuss where he is going and when he'll return. She tells him to pick up laundry detergent and something for dinner. Dylan is not sure he is ready for this new arrangement.

At the Beach Club, Steve meets a cute girl named Rorie. David, Kelly and Donna are talking about Donna's Paris trip. She's already homesick. Cindy Walsh shows up and joins them. Brandon shows a cute girl to her cabana and they obviously like each other immediately.

Steve tells Brandon he's met a great looking girl. He points her out to Brandon. Brandon think she's the same girl he just met but then they see that Rorie has a twin sister. Steve suggests that they double date.

Andrea stops Brandon to tell him how her day went with the young kids. She's still enjoying her job. Cindy asks Brandon to stop by Dylan's house and see how Brenda is getting along. Kelly is a bit shocked to see her mother nursing the new baby, but warms up to the infant and asks to hold her.

Brenda and Dylan are eating the burritos he brought home. Brandon arrives for a visit. Brandon suspects the living arrangement is not quite perfect. He relays this to Jim and Cindy Walsh.

Kelly gets up during the night to check on her baby sister Erin, showing a new maternal quality to her personality. Kelly tells her mother she does not want to go to Paris this summer.

Episode 051 – Page 2

Steve suggests that he and Brandon switch their twin dates. He'll date Claire and let Brandon date Rorie.

Kelly and Donna visit Brenda. They find Brenda less than cheerful. Kelly tells them she has decided not to go to Paris. She finds the new baby Erin more exciting than going on a trip. Donna suggests that Brenda go instead.

Dylan confesses to Brandon that his togetherness with Brenda is not quite what he hoped it would be. She's trying too hard to make it work out.

Brenda stops by the Walsh house to tell Cindy everything is fine with her new living arrangement with Dylan. Cindy detects a bit of homesickness in Brenda. They discuss the fact that Kelly has cancelled out on the Paris trip.

Brandon and Steve have switched dates for the day. Claire with Brandon and Rorie is with Steve. Cindy tells Jim that Brenda came by the house. He says she should have locked her in while she was there. Brenda tells Dylan that she visited her parent's house and it has left her feeling a bit sad.

A letter comes to Dylan informing him that his trust account is to be frozen and he has to appear at Jim Walsh's office the next day. Steve and Brandon continue their plans for changing their "twin dates." Kelly phones Brenda telling her how much she enjoys her new baby sister, Erin.

Dylan meets with Jim Walsh, who mentions to him that he may be violating the California law by co-habiting with a minor, namely, Brenda. Dylan reminds Jim it isn't his fault that Jim can not communicate with his daughter. Jim says he and Cindy have decided to send Brenda to Paris.

The twins pull a switch on Steve and Brandon, each pretending to be the other. Steve has been "outfoxed" again. Dylan and Brenda go to the Walsh house for dinner, Brenda is reluctant but finally agrees.

Steve is confessing to Rorie, thinking she is her twin, Claire, that he and Rorie just aren't right for each other. He found Rorie boring, he says. Rorie tells him she's Rorie, not her sister Claire.

Episode 051 – Page 3

Jim and Cindy tell Brenda they are treating her to a trip to Paris. Brenda thinks it's just a trick to keep her from Dylan, but Dylan speaks up in support of the Paris trip.

Cindy reminds Brenda that she always regretted turning down an opportunity she had to study in Paris. Dylan tells Jim Walsh he went along with the idea of the Paris trip because it really is best for Brenda.

Brandon jokingly tells Steve that maybe he should throw tantrums, get drunk and such. Maybe he would get sent to Paris too. The girls arrive, with suitcases, on the way to the airport for the Walsh going away party at the Beach Club. Everyone is on hand to see them off on their trip.

STARRING

Jason Priestley.....	Brandon Walsh
Shannon Doherty	Brenda Walsh
Carol Potter.....	Cindy Walsh
James Eckhouse	Jim Walsh
Luke Perry.....	Dylan McKay
Jennie Garth	Kelly Taylor
Ian Ziering.....	Steve Sanders
Brian Austin Green	David Silver
Doug Emerson.....	Scott Scalon
Gabrielle Carteris.....	Andrea Zuckerman
Tori Spelling	Donna Martin

EPISODE #052

“TOO LITTLE TOO LATE / PARIS 75001”

At the Beach Club, the summer camp kids are burying Brandon in the sand, enjoying themselves. Only a deaf boy named Cameron does not join in the fun. Brandon notices Andrea run-off to greet her new boyfriend, Jay.

Steve tells Brandon that Dylan's father has a front-page story in the newspaper about his possible parole. At the prison visitor's room Dylan greets his father, Jack McKay. He tells his son he thinks that a letter from Dylan will help him get released. Dylan flares up at his father as he remembers how he had neglected him over the years.

In Paris, Brenda and Donna get in an argument with their taxi driver about his smoking, and are thrown out, along with their luggage. They arrive at their hotel, The Casanova, carrying all their suitcases. Mme. Dubois rushes forward to them, speaking French. Brenda and Donna, less than fluent in French, explain in English that they are tired and wish to go to their rooms.

They find that the room is small and with no view. Mme. Dubois smiles that they will be in classes all day and partying all night. They meet several other American girls who are there in the "Immersion Program." The hotel is quite a bit less than what the girls expected.

At a beach restaurant, Andrea and Jay are having dinner. Jay says he is going to be an observer at the Republican Convention in August. Jay thinks he can get them to hire Andrea too. They discuss their differences in politics, ending in a kiss.

At the Beach Club, Andrea debates whether to give up her youth work, for the experience of going to Houston. Andrea encourages Cameron's mother to let him join the other children, even though he is deaf. Andrea is able to speak "sign language" from a prior summer job. Reluctantly, Cameron's mother gives in to the idea.

In Paris, Brenda and Donna are trying to find Balzac's house. Finally, they find the building, but it is closed. Donna is tired of museums and wants to go shopping. Jay tells Brandon he has gotten Andrea the job at the Convention in Houston. Brandon's reaction is less than enthusiastic, but Andrea is delighted. Steve tells Brandon that Andrea is trying to make him jealous.

Episode 052 – Page 2

Dylan is trying to compose a letter to the Parole Review Board, as his father requested. Kelly and David argue about the loudness of his electronic keyboard. Kelly walks over to talk with Dylan. They mention that neither has heard from Brenda yet. In a chic Paris restaurant, Brenda and Donna try to order dinner in French and end up being served calf's brain.

At the beach, Cameron's mother panics when she can't find her son. She knows he can't hear her if she calls out his name. The son is found with Andrea and the other children. A game of water balloon fighting ends and Andrea and Brandon has an argument about her going with Jay to Houston. He kisses her but she brushes him aside.

Brandon realizes he cares a great deal for Andrea and confides in Steve about "women troubles." Dylan passes Jim Walsh in the parking lot and tells him he has not heard from Brenda.

In Paris, Donna and Brenda are dressing for their first Paris party. They are going in a group with other students. The party is big and noisy, but makes the girls miss David and Dylan even more.

Dylan joins his father for the hearing. Mr. McKay thanks him for writing the letter. Dylan says it's all lies and that his father was never there when he really needed him. Jack reminds him that there were times when they were together. At a cafe, Brenda and Donna are feeling more and more homesick. They decide to telephone their boyfriends.

Andrea is faced with the task of telling Cameron she will be leaving. His reaction is not good. Just as he has begun to mingle with the other children, his new friend, Andrea is going away. Dylan's father is denied parole but Dylan tells Kelly he'll be up for parole again soon. Dylan and Kelly begin to confide in each other more often.

Andrea changes her mind about the Convention trip. She decides Cameron and the other kids need her here.

Episode 052 – Page 3

STARRING

Jason Priestley.....	Brandon Walsh
Shannon Doherty	Brenda Walsh
Carol Potter.....	Cindy Walsh
James Eckhouse	Jim Walsh
Luke Perry.....	Dylan McKay
Jennie Garth	Kelly Taylor
Ian Ziering.....	Steve Sanders
Brian Austin Green	David Silver
Doug Emerson.....	Scott Scalon
Gabrielle Carteris.....	Andrea Zuckerman
Tori Spelling	Donna Martin

EPISODE #053

“SEX, LIES AND VOLLEYBALL”

At the Beach club a volleyball tournament is about to begin. Steve tells Brandon about his excitement about all the beautiful girls that will be there. Steve approaches one attractive girl but she finds the sounds of David's synthesizer more appealing. David and Nikki have found a common interest, his music.

In Paris, Brenda, Donna and another student, Maggie are enjoying the sights and sounds of the streets of the city. At the Volleyball Contest Registration, Steve spots Brooke, a lean California girl. Steve asks if she has a partner for the "mixed doubles" game, but she wants him to prove he is good enough first.

Kelly and Dylan sign up to play as partners in the "mixed doubles" match. Donna tries to buy a French pastry, speaking French, and gets a taste of Parisian rudeness. Later, a woman approaches Donna and asks if she has had modeling experience.

Steve uses his line about his mom being a daytime TV star and Brooke warms up to him. Donna does some photo modeling for the French fashion photographer, Pierre. He also appears to be personally attracted to her.

Kelly reads Brenda's letter to David telling him about the experiences of Donna and the modeling. David seems preoccupied with other thoughts. Later that night, David plays his latest music number for Nikki, at his cabana. She is impressed, and so is David.

Just as Brenda, Donna, Maggie and the other students are ready to leave for a day trip to Versailles a car and flowers arrive for Donna. Pierre needs her for some more photo modeling.

Dylan and Kelly have won their first volleyball game playoff, and celebrate by going to her house to watch a video of the old movie, "Casablanca."

Steve and Brooke win their first game too, and go to the Peach Pit to celebrate. Brandon joins them, but Steve feels he is trying to take away Brooke. Brandon denies it, but later Brooke takes the initiative and asks Brandon to call her.

Episode 053 – Page 2

While watching the video movie, at the most romantic moment, the spell is broken by the sound of baby Erin's cries from upstairs. Kelly asks Dylan to hold the baby while she heats the formula. Reluctantly, he takes the baby in his arms. He begins to give Erin some behavioral advice for later in her life. Kelly is impressed with his way with the baby.

Brenda and Maggie discuss Donna's new attitude toward her modeling work. Maggie warns that Pierre is no "saint." Donna arrives back at the hotel late and wakes Brenda to tell her about a modeling contract Pierre has offered to her.

David asks Steve's advice about his relationship with Nikki. Should he sleep with her even though Donna is his true girlfriend?

The volleyball game is Steve and Brooke against Kelly and Dylan. Steve and Brooke win, but when Steve suggests a "private" celebration at his house, she declines.

Brenda arrives back at the hotel, from an all day field trip, to find Donna getting dressed for a party. Brenda tells Donna she feels she's doing the wrong thing, staying on in Paris for a modeling career and not finishing high school. Donna feels that she may have found the chance to be somebody and stand out from the crowd. Brenda fears Donna will be hurt in her relationship with Pierre.

Brooke invites Brandon to join her for a drive up the coast when he gets off work. Brandon hesitates because he doesn't want to hurt his friend, Steve.

Kelly walks into the cabana to discover David and Nikki in a steamy embrace. Kelly is upset to think that David is two-timing her friend Donna.

Brandon tells Steve he is sorry it didn't work out for him with Brooke. Steve is angry and hurt.

At Pierre's party, Donna has met a talent agent and other friends of his. Pierre tells Donna to wait and they can talk, after the other guests have gone. Later Pierre begins to move in on her and when she resists he reminds her of the career she could be destroying. Donna tosses a glass of red wine on him and leaves.

Episode 053 – Page 3

Back at the hotel, Brenda cheers Donna up by reminding her this has been a good growing-up" experience. She also has learned to speak French and has a portfolio of fashion photography.

David meets Nikki at the Peach Pit to tell her he has decided to be true to Donna. Nikki says she wishes she could find someone like him. The final game of the Volleyball Playoff is almost lost by Brooke and Steve. His heart is no longer in the game but after a pep talk from Brandon, they come back to win.

STARRING

Jason Priestley.....	Brandon Walsh
Shannon Doherty	Brenda Walsh
Carol Potter.....	Cindy Walsh
James Eckhouse	Jim Walsh
Luke Perry.....	Dylan McKay
Jennie Garth	Kelly Taylor
Ian Ziering.....	Steve Sanders
Brian Austin Green	David Silver
Doug Emerson.....	Scott Scalon
Gabrielle Carteris.....	Andrea Zuckerman
Tori Spelling	Donna Martin

EPISODE #054

“SHOOTING STAR / AMERICAN IN PARIS”

Brenda and Donna discuss how much money they have spent in Paris. Donna says she is about to spend some more this afternoon but Brenda decides to spend these last few days soaking up the atmosphere of Paris.

Brandon befriends a homeless man on the beach although Andrea is hesitant to have the kids around him. Brandon offers some change to the man, but he refuses. Brooke races up on a set of "roller blades." Brandon challenges her to a race later. She sees the homeless man and comments that this ought to be a private beach.

Steve and David discuss a new song David has just played. Reluctantly, Steve admits he would like to hear more of David's work. Dylan confronts Kelly about avoiding him lately. She says Brenda will be home in a few days and she doesn't want their brief encounter to jeopardize her friendship with Brenda.

A young American student named Rick, approaches Brenda in the park, thinking that she is French. Brenda has some innocent fun with her impersonation. Rick asks her to show him around Paris. Back at the hotel Donna and Maggie are amazed that Brenda is going to try this charade with Rick.

While racing with Brooke along the bike path, Brandon stops to talk to the homeless man he saw earlier. Brooke is not pleased that he is encouraging this "riff raff" to hang around beaches.

Kelly stops by Dylan's house to apologize for her abruptness to him at the beach earlier. They discuss their relationship, ending in a kiss. They both are confused by the feelings they have for each other.

At the Casanova Hotel, Donna and Maggie are off on a shopping trip and Brenda has left to join Rick, as his tour guide. A phone call comes from Dylan for Brenda but she has already gone. Donna tells him that Brenda left by herself, not wanting to compromise her date with Rick.

Brenda and Rick are enjoying each other's company as they visit the well-known tourist sites of the city. He invites her to have dinner with him. David hopes that if Steve likes his music tape, he will agree to introduce him to some of his mother's friends in the record business.

Episode 054 – Page 2

Brandon, Andrea and Cameron, the deaf boy, are launching kites on the beach. Jack Canner, the homeless man, comes over to offer some advice. Brandon finds out Canner is a veteran of the Middle East War. When he came home, he lost his job, his house and his wife and kids. He was an engineer but the government contracts were cut back.

Brandon talks to Henry about giving Canner a temporary job at the Club, to help clean up the place for the rest of the season.

Dylan picks up Kelly at the beach. They go "wet biking" in the surf. Again, the discussion of Brenda's imminent return comes up.

Brenda and Rick have just finished dinner in a romantic cafe. Brenda is still being secretive about her own background. Rick wants her to demonstrate the French "kiss on each cheek." She agrees, but it ends in a more passionate kiss on the lips.

Brandon tells Brooke he got a job interview for the homeless man. Brooke feels Brandon is wasting his time. The man is a bum. Steve tells Kelly he likes David's music. Later Dylan invites Kelly to join him on the beach tonight, "camping out under the stars." He promises they'll just talk.

David walks in suddenly while Dylan is rubbing aloe lotion on Kelly's sunburn. David is dumbfounded. He races out of the cabana. Kelly tells Dylan that too many people are going to get hurt if they keep seeing each other. Donna is upset when Brenda finally arrives back at the hotel. Brenda tells her that she is confused and wonders whether she is failing in love with Rick.

The Walshs invite Brooke over for dinner. Brooke was originally from Minnesota, so they have plenty in common. The conversation gets around to Brandon's friendship with the homeless man.

Kelly and David discuss the incident at the cabana with Dylan. She says it was all a misunderstanding. David says he won't tell Brenda if she won't tell Donna about his encounter with Nikki. Kelly tells him that Steve likes his music.

Episode 054 – Page 3

The "Goodbye Party" is underway at the hotel with the girls posing for pictures and toasting each other. Rick arrives with three other college students. Brenda tries to hide but when Maggie makes a play for Rick she goes over to him. She pretends she is there to say goodbye to friends. They go to the park to discuss their relationship and although Brenda keeps denying the attraction she ends up in his embrace.

At the cabana, Steve tells David he likes the music and wants to be his manager. David plays it cool and says he doesn't need a manager, just a few introductions. Finally, David agrees but only for two weeks.

Canner fails to show for the job interview. Brandon is disappointed and Brooke reiterates her feelings about bums. Andrea rushes up to them; she can't find Cameron, the deaf boy. He shows up a few minutes later having been to the rest room.

The girls are gathering their luggage in the hotel lobby ready to leave for the airport. Brenda feels very guilty at failing to meet Rick, as she promised. Suddenly she darts off down the street to find him.

Kelly decides to join Dylan at Paradise Cove Beach. She brings pizza with her. They watch the stars and talk about their relationship.

STARRING

Jason Priestley.....	Brandon Walsh
Shannon Doherty	Brenda Walsh
Carol Potter.....	Cindy Walsh
James Eckhouse	Jim Walsh
Luke Perry.....	Dylan McKay
Jennie Garth	Kelly Taylor
Ian Ziering.....	Steve Sanders
Brian Austin Green	David Silver
Doug Emerson.....	Scott Scalon
Gabrielle Carteris.....	Andrea Zuckerman
Tori Spelling	Donna Martin

EPISODE #055

“CASTLES IN THE SAND”

Brenda and Donna are on the way home from Paris. During the flight Brenda dreams about Rick and what it might be like to remain in Paris with him.

At a secluded beach area, Dylan and Kelly are waking up, after a night spent together on the beach. Kelly feels guilty and tells Dylan she's glad they did not have sex together. Dylan reminds her they did sleep in each other's arms, however.

Suddenly Andrea shows up with a group of kids. They are looking for seashells. Dylan pretends the other sleeping bag contains Kevin, who partied too much last night. Andrea leaves without seeing Kelly. Kelly tells Dylan that when Brenda gets home tomorrow, he'll remember why he loves her so much.

At the Taylor cabana, David is auditioning a new song for Steve. Steve wants changes but David stands his ground saying that when Steve gets him a booking he'll pay more attention to his advice.

At the Walsh home everyone's waiting for Brenda to arrive. A small party is planned. Brandon has invited Brooke. Andrea displays a little jealousy but Steve says he is not concerned that Brooke chose Brandon. Brenda arrives to warm greetings. Only Dylan is missing. Brenda confronts her parents in a calm mature manner saying she will need to know about her future relationship with Dylan. Brooke makes a comment that the cheese enchilada is probably Mexico's greatest contribution to American culture. Brandon is displeased by her racist remark. Donna arrives to join the party accompanied by Kelly. Brenda greets Kelly warmly but Kelly is slightly reserved. Brenda tugs Kelly's arm and invites her upstairs for a private talk. Brenda asks her why Dylan isn't here and if she's seen him lately. Brenda confesses she met Rick in Paris and was tempted to spend the rest of the summer with him. Kelly can only answer that "temptation is a killer" especially when you are lonely.

Dylan arrives and it is an awkward moment for both Brenda and Kelly, for different reasons. Kelly leaves early saying she has errands to do. Brenda has a gift for Dylan inscribed, "I love you, Brenda." After Dylan leaves, Brenda thanks her parents for inviting him.

Brenda and Brandon have a little talk before going to bed. They discuss what happened over the summer.

Episode 055 – Page 2

At the Taylor home, David and Kelly have a talk about Kelly's fear that Brenda will discover that she and Dylan were dating while she was in Paris. David says he does not plan to tell Donna about Nikki either.

At the beach the sand sculpting contest is well underway. Andrea and her group of kids have a batmobile design. Brandon tell Brooke he has to work most of the day and won't be of much help. Donna and Brenda are working on a map of France, showing highlights of their trip. Dylan pitches in to help.

At home, Kelly is hesitant to join her family in coming to the beach. Her mother, Jackie suspects something but doesn't know who the boy is. She thinks it may be Jake. David warns her that if she mopes around like this everyone is going to know the truth.

Brooke shows her racist attitude by commenting that Henry can't be fired because he's black. Brandon is upset by her remark. All go over to greet Jackie and the new baby as they cross to their cabana. Dylan lets slip how he and Kelly babysat little Erin one night, but it seems to slide by undetected.

Kelly begs off helping Brenda and Donna with their sand sculpture saying she must help Jackie with the baby. Brandon and Brooke are shucking corn for the party. Again Brooke and Brandon get into a disagreement over her racist remarks in discussing the recent riots.

Brandon is beginning to feel that his rather liberal philosophies will never mix with the attitudes that Brooke has. Brooke storms away angry. Dylan catches up with Kelly. He wants to talk but she brushes him off.

Steve tries to talk to Henry into hiring David to provide the music for the party but Henry has already hired a band. Andrea tells Brandon, her friend Jay is back at Northwestern and wrote that he misses her.

David is paying a lot of attention to Donna and Brenda comments that maybe they should take a trip away more often. Brandon finds Brooke working on their sand sculpture and apologizes to her. He says they will have to pick other topics to discuss, very carefully in the future.

Andrea has a talk with Cameron, the deaf boy. He tells her he ran away because he couldn't face saying goodbye to her.

Episode 055 – Page 3

The judges are about to select the winner. Brenda finds Kelly alone and quizzes her about seeing Dylan over the summer. She says she suspects there was someone because he is being too nice to her. Kelly can't bring herself to confess that she dated Dylan.

Steve finds the band unloading their instruments in the parking lot. He pays them off and tells them he wants exposure for his new client. The judges pick the Batmobile the winner and Andrea and the kids are overjoyed.

Once more Brooke gets into a racist discussion with Brandon. This time the topic is Andrea and the fact that she works so hard with the kids. She adds that Beverly Hills Jews all have lots of money. Brandon is very angry and their relationship ends abruptly.

Henry agrees to let David provide the musical entertainment when the band fails to show up. Everyone is surprised and delighted with David's music and Steve claims the credit, of course.

Brenda confesses to Dylan that she did meet a boy in Paris that she found attractive. But it didn't really amount to anything, she adds. Dylan changes the subject and asks her if she is ready to start their Senior Year together at school. Brandon and Kelly have a moment together discussing their disappointments over the summer.

A clean-shaven man approaches Brandon. It is Canner, the homeless man. He apologizes for not showing up for the job. He says he had to visit his wife and kids. One of them was ill. Henry hires him to help close up the beach club for the season. Dylan joins Kelly standing at the end of the surf. They agree that what they experienced during the summer has past. Nothing lasts forever, she adds as the incoming tide symbolically washes away the sandcastles.

Episode 055 – Page 4

STARRING

Jason Priestley.....	Brandon Walsh
Shannon Doherty	Brenda Walsh
Carol Potter.....	Cindy Walsh
James Eckhouse	Jim Walsh
Luke Perry.....	Dylan McKay
Jennie Garth	Kelly Taylor
Ian Ziering.....	Steve Sanders
Brian Austin Green	David Silver
Doug Emerson.....	Scott Scalon
Gabrielle Carteris.....	Andrea Zuckerman
Tori Spelling	Donna Martin

EPISODE #056

“A SONG OF MYSELF”

It's back to school day at West Beverly High. Brandon and Brenda remark that one day they'll look back on this and miss it. Dylan doesn't exactly agree. Kelly and Donna approach. They see Brenda and Dylan in a playful kiss, and not what Kelly wants to see first thing in the morning. Donna mentions that high school sweethearts sometimes get married.

David in the radio booth welcomes all the students back. Suddenly he spots an attractive girl eyeing him. He gulps as he recognizes the girl is Nikki. She tells him she did not go back to San Francisco but transferred to this school instead. Nikki says she has to hurry to meet her "Senior Buddy." Seeing the new freshman Donna comments that surely they never looked that young.

Steve has been assigned to, not a cute young girl, but to Herbert Little, a black kid. Brenda is assigned to a fresh-faced girl named Sue and, of all things, Donna meets her "buddy" who is Nikki.

Andrea is going full blast in the school newspaper office. She tells Brandon they have a new faculty advisor named Gil Meyers. Brandon surprises her by saying he doesn't plan to work on the Blaze newspaper this year. Andrea is upset and says she needs his experience on the paper. Gil Meyers joins them. Andrea tells Meyers that Brandon wants to quit as sports editor. Meyers says if Brandon is as good as Andrea thinks, that he will help her convince him to stay.

Brenda gives advice to her "buddy" Sue, telling her "just to be her own person and forget what other kids think."

Kelly and Dylan find themselves in the same Spanish class. He says he tried to call her last night but he hung up when David answered. Brenda joins them and looks at their schedules. She is delighted they will be in most of the same classes. Kelly is less than enthusiastic.

Andrea works up a preliminary report on how to reorganize the paper and presents it to Gil Meyers.

Episode 056 – Page 2

Donna is excited about her "senior buddy." Nikki tells David she wants him to meet her. David is shocked to see Donna's "buddy" is Nikki. While Donna continues the conversation saying David is her boyfriend, Nikki and David try to pretend this is their first meeting.

Dylan suggests that he and Brenda go to his house for lunch but she declines.

After school, Meyers holds a meeting with the newspaper staff saying he liked the work they turned out but he thinks they can do better. Andrea tells Brandon she fears Meyers does not like her. Brandon says he doesn't agree, and tries to reassure Andrea.

At the Walsh house, dinner is being planned as a backyard barbecue but Jim can't get the charcoal to burn. Dylan has been invited for dinner so he volunteers to help Jim get the barbecue started. Brenda can only comment, "what a difference a summer makes."

At home Kelly confesses to David that she is not sure she can make it through the year. David tells her about Nikki's reappearance. Kelly advises him to tell Donna the whole story about their relationship during the summer.

In class Meyers discusses Walt Whitman's poem "Song of Myself" and points out how the poems stood up for women's rights over 150 years ago. After class he asks Andrea and Brandon to remain for a few minutes. Meyers tells Brandon about his decision to make him editor-in-chief of the paper. Andrea puts up a brave front and congratulates Brandon.

Brandon talks to Meyers privately about his new job. He expresses concern that Andrea has been hurt. Meyers gives him assurance that she was his biggest booster. Brenda suggests to Dylan that they give a barbecue party at his house and invite the whole group. Kelly visits her school counselor and asks to switch classes. David asks Donna for a date but finds she has plans with her "new friend" Nikki.

Andrea is trying to make the best of her reduction in status on the school paper by offering to help Brandon but her hurt pride shows through when she refuses to show him her ideas for streamlining the paper. They have an argument and Andrea storms off in anger.

Episode 056 – Page 3

David is concerned about his new record being played on the Peach Pit jukebox. Donna and Nikki each think the song was written for them. Steve advises David not to confess anything to Donna. "Keep her as the main course, with Nikki as the side dish," he says. Andrea drops an envelope off for Brandon at the Peach Pit. Everybody knows how disappointed Andrea is.

Andrea tells Meyers she is quitting the newspaper. She says he stepped in and fired her after she'd dedicated three years of her life to salvaging the paper. Meyers tells her he put Brandon in charge because he needed the extra push and she needs to learn to be a team player. Andrea counters that Meyers is sexist.

Steve finds Herbert being hazed by some older students and comes to his defense. Brandon finds the school newspaper is a very demanding job and wishes Andrea were back. Brenda finds Sue Scanlon in the girl's restroom smoking a cigarette. Sue says she's removing her make-up to return to being little "Susie Sunshine" before going home. Brenda tells her she was at Scott's birthday party the night he was shot and there when David buried the time capsule in Scott's memory. She offers to be there for Sue now, if she needs her.

Brandon and Nikki run into each other yet another time in the hallway. They both exchange eye contact for several moments before Brandon introduces himself to her.

Brandon changes the Blaze masthead to read "Brandon Walsh and Andrea Zuckerman, Co-Editors-In-Chief." At first Andrea rejects the idea but Brandon slowly wins her over.

Donna and Nikki set up a test for David's affections. Nikki makes a play for him but David rejects her saying he loves Donna. Donna is listening and steps out to confront David. He realizes they've framed him but relieved that Donna knows of his love for her. Nikki asks if Brandon has a steady girlfriend.

Brenda comforts Kelly telling her that together they're going to find her a great new guy.

Episode 056 – Page 4

STARRING

Jason Priestley.....	Brandon Walsh
Shannon Doherty	Brenda Walsh
Carol Potter.....	Cindy Walsh
James Eckhouse	Jim Walsh
Luke Perry.....	Dylan McKay
Jennie Garth	Kelly Taylor
Ian Ziering.....	Steve Sanders
Brian Austin Green	David Silver
Doug Emerson.....	Scott Scalon
Gabrielle Carteris.....	Andrea Zuckerman
Tori Spelling	Donna Martin

EPISODE #057

“THE BACK STORY”

Most of the group, including Brenda, Donna, Kelly, Steve and David, are attending an S.A.T. Review Course to prepare for taking the very important S.A.T. Test in a week. For various reasons, all are taking the test for a second time hoping for a higher score. David, a junior, is being tested for the first time. After the class, they are faced by a newspaper reporter who questions them about the "cram course."

Brenda tells the reporter that in order to get into a top college, a student has to have a high score on the S.A.T. Suddenly, Steve recognizes the logo on a camera. It's a "sleaze" TV show called "Back Story." Steve remembers they did a "hatchet job" on his actress mother.

The gang is by the lockers at school. Brandon kids Steve about his attack on the TV news crew. They flirt with a couple of younger girls. Brenda comes up and says she is dying for a cigarette. Kelly tells her to forget it. It's not worth getting lung cancer. Dylan joins them but Kelly ducks off down the hall.

Nikki joins her "Senior Buddy," Donna, for a chat. Nikki comments that everyone is so uptight because of the upcoming S.A.T. tests.

Beth Nielsen, the TV news reporter, comes over to Brenda in the parking lot. She says she had nothing to do with the smear of Steve's mother.

At a West Hollywood coffeehouse they continue their conversation. Beth want to do a news documentary on the kids of Beverly Hills and how they are just regular young people, in an extraordinary town. Brenda is beginning to soften to the idea.

At the Peach Pit later, business is booming and Brandon is rushing to take care of customers. Nikki comes in. She speaks to Brandon but he is too busy to pay attention. In the corner booth Steve joins B.J. Harrison, an old friend, and his girl, "Suds" Lipton. B.J. Harrison reminds Steve how he passed his things down to Steve when he grew tired of them. Steve asks if he has any old senior term papers. B.J. offers Steve a passkey that opens all the locks at West Beverly High. Steve is hesitant to accept the key.

Episode 057 – Page 2

Brenda talks to Brandon and suggests he ask Nikki for a date. She makes him nervous, he answers, and she's too young. As they drive home, Brenda mentions Beth Nielsen and the news story she wants to do. Brandon reminds her that the school prefers to keep out of the news. He also wonders why she is suddenly so friendly to Beth. Brenda admits that Beth is friendly and Kelly has seemed so distant since the Paris trip. She is lonely she says.

Brenda accidentally drops a pack of cigarettes from her jacket and Cindy sees it. Jim and Cindy confront Brenda over this smoking habit. She says everybody in Paris smoked. They are not happy that Brenda is making light of this. She adds that she could quit anytime she wants. They advise her to stop now.

Donna and David are studying in the D.J. booth, when they see Kelly and Brenda arguing in the hall. Kelly says she's glad her parents caught her. Dylan overhears and doesn't believe Brenda's explanation about the cigarettes. Dylan tells her he can't pick her up from the S.A.T. test. He is going to see his father in jail and will have to take the test another time. Kelly sides with Dylan saying everyone doesn't have to go to college.

Brenda asks David if he brought her the school video scrapbook that Beth wants to see. Andrea tells Brandon that Nikki has asked to work on the school newspaper. He is not too pleased with this development.

Brenda sees Sue Scanlon about to leave school campus in the middle of the day. Sue tells her she's bored and to let her mother do the worrying.

Brenda takes the "video scrapbook" to Beth and tells her she'll need to get permission from Mrs. Teasley, the Vice Principal, before she uses the tape. Beth introduces Brenda to her producer, Dan Deluca. Brenda agrees to go over the video tapes with them. Her uncensored comments about her friends Donna and Kelly are being dutifully noted by Beth. Brenda lights up a cigarette and relishes in the flattering comments made by Beth and Dan Deluca.

B.J. Harrison, the college student, drops in to see Mrs. Teasley. She greets him warmly. She tells Suds, who is with him, how he made Dean's List and Honor Society when in high school.

Episode 057 – Page 3

When Brenda stops off to see Dylan he says he can smell cigarettes on her. He tells her he won't tolerate a smoker. She says she'll give up cigarettes if he will agree to take the S.A.T. test.

Brandon finds it difficult to edit an article that Nikki has submitted, while she is standing over him. He suggests they let Andrea look it over.

Brenda stops by Beth's mobile news Winnebago. She tells Beth she has to return the videotape to David. Beth goes to get the tape from Dan Deluca and he tells her they need more sizzle in the piece even if they have to exploit the kids.

The "Back Story" news team has sneaked on campus but were ordered to leave. Mrs. Teasley tells Andrea to put a piece in the paper warning the students not to have anything to do with the news documentary team.

Brandon gives Nikki a rude brush off as he is rushing to find Brenda. Brandon finds Brenda at the Public Library studying for the S.A.T. tests. He tells her she should have gotten permission before she started working with the "Back Story" people. She says the news people are taking care of it and not to worry.

Steve confides in Brandon about the passkey to the school offices that he has been offered. Brandon talks him out of getting involved in any cheating scheme.

Cindy and Jim are watching television when Brenda arrives home. A segment of "Back Story" flashes on screen. It is quickly obvious that they are doing a horrendous hatchet job on Brenda and her friends, twisting and distorting everything she has said. Kelly, Donna and David are very upset with Brenda for her part in this expose.

Dylan visits his father and gets a sermon on life. Jack tells him his trust fund money will not last forever and then he'll have to get a job. His father advises Dylan to go to college.

At the S.A.T. tests, all her friends ignore Brenda and are still very angry about the "Back Story" show.

Episode 057 – Page 4

Beth tries to find Brenda to tell her she has quit the news show and that she can't live with their smear tactics. Brandon treats her very coolly but does tell her Brenda and the others are taking their tests today.

Beth explains to the group that it was not Brenda's fault and that she was exploited just like they were. She adds that she has Brenda's interview and commentary on tape if any of them will take the time to listen.

At the Peach Pit, Brandon apologizes to Nikki for the rude way he treated her. He gives her a kiss. In the dark parking lot Steve goes over to B.J. Harrison's car. B.J. hands him the school passkey. Steve has just "sold his soul to the devil."

STARRING

Jason Priestley.....	Brandon Walsh
Shannon Doherty	Brenda Walsh
Carol Potter.....	Cindy Walsh
James Eckhouse	Jim Walsh
Luke Perry.....	Dylan McKay
Jennie Garth	Kelly Taylor
Ian Ziering.....	Steve Sanders
Brian Austin Green	David Silver
Doug Emerson.....	Scott Scalon
Gabrielle Carteris.....	Andrea Zuckerman
Tori Spelling	Donna Martin

EPISODE #058

HIGHWIRE

Kelly is in the shower in the upstairs bathroom. David, with earphones blasting into his ears, accidentally walks in on her as she is toweling off. Kelly is very angry and David is embarrassed.

Brandon and Gil Meyers enter the newspaper office to find Andrea busy going over college admission books. She tells Brandon she has a few offers of scholarships but not from major colleges. She's hoping to get into an important school by scholarship since she doesn't have much money. Brandon realizes Andrea's problem of tuition money is not one the rest of the group faces.

Steve has to ask the school janitor to open his locker because it's stuck. Kelly tells Donna about the morning incident of David bursting in on her in the bathroom. Mrs. Teasley admonishes Kelly for missing her college counseling session and reminds Donna of her appointment.

As Kelly passes David's broadcast booth, he glances her way and she shouts at him to stop staring at her. Steve overhears and asks David what is the problem.

Brandon is talking to Nikki about the art of kissing. Dylan notices their intimacy as he passes. Steve and David having shared the details of the bathroom incident, now glance toward Kelly outside in the hall. She is angry and suspects that Steve now knows too.

In art class, the topic is the "female form." Donna adds, sotto voce, to the list of famous nudes that the teacher has mentioned, Kelly's name. Kelly is not amused.

Dylan meets with Mrs. Teasley to discuss his grade average. When she stresses how important good grades are for college entrance, he answers that he's not sure college is important.

At the Peach Pit, Kelly sits at the counter near Dylan. He comments that he hears she's been giving David a hard time. Kelly lets out an "oh my God!" kind of sigh. Brandon says that Brenda is home studying up for the college counseling session. Andrea comes in and tells Brandon she's narrowed her list of choice colleges to five, and Yale is her top choice.

Andrea awakens with a jolt from her nightmare. She was dreaming of being on a high wire and is distracted by Dylan and falls.

Episode 058 – Page 2

In counseling sessions with Mrs. Teasley, both Brandon and Brenda have expressed interest in attending the same major college.

At home, Jim Walsh tells Brandon and Brenda that due to the economic slowdown, he can only afford to send one of them to an expensive out-of-state college. This leads to angry discussions. Jim and Cindy have to decide which of their children will get preferential treatment.

The friction continues at school the next day and Dylan tries to cool down the situation. Donna has her counseling session with Mrs. Teasley. She says her father thinks she is just dumb and should forget college and just major in shopping.

David tells Steve that he is having flashbacks of seeing Kelly nude in the shower. Brandon tells David he's a celebrity now that everyone knows. Steve says not to worry. Guys undress girls with their eyes everyday, he adds. Andrea has overheard this discussion and comes over to join them.

Andrea discusses her desire to attend Yale, with Gil Meyers, an alumnus of the college. He tells her not to get her hopes up because they are very selective. Mrs. Teasley advises Steve he will have to forget about USC, unless he improves his grade point average during his senior year.

Brenda confronts Kelly over her melancholy attitude. Kelly says she doesn't know if she wants to go to college or even what she wants to do with her life.

Donna gives David a ride home after Kelly refuses him. Along the way they discuss the shower incident and David professes his innocence and gives a kiss to Donna on the cheek. However, he says, "You smell so good, Kelly." Donna is not pleased by this slip of the tongue.

Brenda and Dylan discuss their futures. Brenda says she hopes they will be going to the same college. Dylan tells her he's not going to any university here or out of state. Brenda accuses him of doing this to get even with his father. This angers Dylan and he answers that he doesn't like anybody planning his future for him.

Episode 058 – Page 3

Brandon is angry when he hears Brenda has been talking to their father privately about her choice of colleges. Brandon says that he will attend either a local school or the University of Minnesota and use his grandmother's address, as his residence. Upstairs, Brenda has been trying to get her father to talk to Dylan about going to college, and not, as Brandon thought, about her own choice of expensive schools.

Andrea has another nightmare about getting into Yale, the college of her choice. Steve finds that the school passkey does not open the front or side doors. He is frustrated and angry. He confronts B.J. Harrison who gave him the key. It appears the locks have been changed.

Donna is overjoyed when the art class teacher points out her work as being professional caliber. The teacher suggests she consider a career in art and design.

Brenda asks Kelly's opinion regarding Dylan and his lack of interest in college. She mentions how her father feels Dylan has an interest in nothing but motorcycles and surfing.

Brandon and Nikki discuss his fight with Brenda, about their college selection. Nikki tells him to sign up for California University. It's a fine college and here in town, she adds as they exchange a gentle kiss.

Brenda tells Brandon he can go to the out-of-state college. She has decided to go to school here in the city. She says she wants to be close to where Dylan is living. She phones Dylan to tell him of her decision. He says he doesn't feel she should do this because of him. While he is talking, Kelly drops by to see him.

Kelly tells Dylan that her melancholy attitude of late has been because she misses him and their being together, like last summer.

Jim and Cindy are surprised. Now that they have taken out a second mortgage on their house, so both children can go to expensive colleges, Brenda and Brandon have decided to go to a local college.

Andrea informs Gil Meyers she intends to try her best to be accepted to Yale, even if he thinks she doesn't have a chance. He tells her he is glad of her decision and will send a letter of recommendation. He just wanted to be sure she was a real "fighter."

Episode 058 – Page 4

Steve is caught by Hutchins, the school janitor, as he is trying to steal passkeys. Hutchins says he'll forget the incident if Steve has some extra cash. Steve slips him a hundred dollars. If the price is right, he tells Steve, a real passkey could be available.

Kelly tells David she believes that he did accidentally walk in on her in the shower, but in the future they will have to be more careful. She teases him by slowly taking of her robe. David is puzzled until he sees underneath she is wearing a very unsexy nightgown. She walks away with a smile.

STARRING

Jason Priestley.....	Brandon Walsh
Shannon Doherty	Brenda Walsh
Carol Potter.....	Cindy Walsh
James Eckhouse	Jim Walsh
Luke Perry.....	Dylan McKay
Jennie Garth	Kelly Taylor
Ian Ziering.....	Steve Sanders
Brian Austin Green	David Silver
Doug Emerson.....	Scott Scalon
Gabrielle Carteris.....	Andrea Zuckerman
Tori Spelling	Donna Martin

EPISODE #059

“HOME AND AWAY”

Montage of football scenes, cheerleaders, players on the field and the hoopla and pageantry of the sport.

In the school paper newsroom, Andrea shows some concern that Brandon will finish his editorial on time. Brandon sits in the corner lost in thought as he types into the computer. He flashes back to the night West Beverly came out undefeated after three games.

Brenda is in charge of the Dance Committee and tells Dylan the money raised at the event goes to underprivileged children.

Donna expresses some jealous concern that Sue Scanlon may be "coming on" to David. Kelly poo-poops the idea.

Brandon discusses the upcoming football game with some of the team, at the Peach Pit. They all have some apprehension about the type of crowds at the game against Shaw High.

At breakfast, Brandon agrees to drive Brenda and Donna to dance band audition. Jim reads the newspaper and discusses the shootings at a high school game last night, with Cindy. The shootings occurred at Shaw High.

Brandon finds the team players in lively discussion about the shootings, when he arrives at the coaching room. Some players express reluctance to go to Shaw High for the game.

Brenda and Donna are auditioning dance bands. Kelly arrives late, saying she will have to pull out of the committee because her father has called and is coming to see her. After hearing a couple of groups, Kelly thinks they ought to hire David for the music at the dance.

At the Board of Education Hearing Room, Brandon waits for a decision about the upcoming game. He talks to a black kid his age, named Jordan Bonner. Jordan and Brandon have a lively discussion about who was to blame for the shootings at Shaw. Jordan is obviously concerned the game will be cancelled and in a few minutes the announcement is made that there will be no game at Shaw High.

Episode 059 – Page 2

Andrea is still nudging Brandon to finish up his editorial and stops Nikki from interrupting him.

Donna interrupts David and Steve in the D.J. booth and reprimands David for inviting Sue Scanlon to ride to the dance with them. David assures Donna that she is the one he loves.

Andrea continues to pace nervously, worried about the newspaper deadline. Brandon tells her to leave and he'll finish up the paper. Brandon places a phone call and the other person agrees to join him, but Steve shows up. He wants David's picture on the newspaper back page.

The gang is discussing the football cancellation and debating if the dance should be postponed too.

Brandon drives to South Central district to talk to Jordan. Brandon suggests rescheduling the game, but in a neutral stadium. Jordan resents this suggestion saying that not playing at Shaw would mean the violent gangs had won. He adds that the two students killed were his friends. They decide to each write a eulogy. Jordan for his friends and Brandon for the un-played football game, to be published in their school papers.

Jordan's eulogy is met with stern resistance by Andrea and Gil Meyers. It is filled with obscenities and crude reference to Coach Chapman. Jordan's article is killed. Brandon is deeply concerned that the loss of two lives at Shaw High means nothing to his friends whose interest is in whether their dance will be cancelled.

Jordan delivers a revised editorial to Brandon for use in the school paper. He says the other article was his emotional anger speaking not his intellect. Brandon invites Jordan and his friends to their dance.

Some students are upset, feeling Brandon has overstepped his rights. They fear the administration will cancel the dance now. Andrea is upset because Brandon did all this without discussing it with her. Gil Meyers sides with Brandon. Dylan sides against Brenda on the whole business. David fears that if the dance is cancelled he'll miss out on providing the music.

Episode 059 – Page 3

Brandon talks to Mrs. Teasley. She says the issue is simply safety of the students. Brandon is not sure of that. Donna is still concerned about the closeness of Sue Scanlon to David. Kelly is' nervous that her father won't show up, as he promised.

Brandon is confronted by his apprehensive parents regarding security at the dance. Brandon receives a phone call from Jordan saying that a large number of Shaw High students are coming to the dance.

At the Pigskin Prom everything is going well so far. Brenda and Donna greet Jordan at the entrance, as hostesses. David tries to discourage Sue Scanlon's attention, knowing how upset Donna is getting. He asks for Steve's help but without success. Brandon advises Kyle, Tony Miller and other football players to stay cool when the Shaw High students arrive.

Dylan stops off at the Peach Pit to find Kelly looking very depressed. She tells Dylan her father didn't show up. She got a phone message from his secretary saying he couldn't be there. The two of them compare their disappointments in life and decide to move on. They go to the dance to join others.

Brandon intercedes at the entrance when black students are refused admission by security guards. The crowd inside has divided into two opposite groups and nobody's dancing, as tension mounts.

Nikki and Donna invite two black students to dance. The tense situation eases. The students join in a group dancing now. Brandon suggests to Jordan that they try to get a football game scheduled again.

Episode 059 – Page 4

STARRING

Jason Priestley.....	Brandon Walsh
Shannon Doherty	Brenda Walsh
Carol Potter.....	Cindy Walsh
James Eckhouse	Jim Walsh
Luke Perry.....	Dylan McKay
Jennie Garth	Kelly Taylor
Ian Ziering.....	Steve Sanders
Brian Austin Green	David Silver
Doug Emerson.....	Scott Scalon
Gabrielle Carteris.....	Andrea Zuckerman
Tori Spelling	Donna Martin

EPISODE #060

“PRESUMPTION OF INNOCENSE”

A birthday party is in full swing at the Peach Pit for Dylan with all the gang present. He blows out the candles but as he starts to thank everyone, he begins to cough. As he recovers, they kid him about contaminating the cake. The music starts and some people begin to dance. Andrea asks Gil Meyers about her grade on her term paper, not pleased that it was only a B+.

Sue Scanlon drops by with a rather scuzzy boyfriend. She spots Gil Meyers and asks what she has to do to get a decent grade - take off her clothes for him. Gil recovers quickly and introduces Sue to Andrea. Andrea leaves the two alone and Gil tells Sue she can't get decent grades cutting class. Sue suggests she have a one-on-one independent study project. Gil answers maybe, come by his office and they'll discuss it.

Before entering the house, Sue does her usual quick change, removing lipstick and dangling earrings. Her mother is waiting up. She is upset that Sue is late and tells her she is restricted for the rest of the week. Her Uncle Ernest is coming to visit and he'll be sleeping in Scott's old room.

Brenda is doing office service in Mrs. Teasley's office, when she spots Sue Scanlon waiting. Donna and Brenda say "hi!" Donna asks Sue what was the problem with David at the dance. Sue says it was nothing and David does not interest her. Donna tries to reassure Sue that David does like her but in a casual friendship way, not romantic love.

As the group gathers in the hallway, Steve kids Brandon about going with them to a dance club, with Nikki. Brandon asks Brenda to join them and bring Dylan. As they join Dylan, he is having a coughing spell. Brandon feels he should see a doctor.

Sue Scanlon visits Gil Meyers after class. She is in tears as she tells him that Mrs. Teasley called her mother to report her low grades. She pours out her troubles to him. In sympathy, he extends his arm around her shoulders. She snuggles in close to him. Suddenly, Sue pulls away and dashes down the hall past Andrea.

Episode 060 – Page 2

At the Kingston Twelve Dance Club, the group has arrived. Steve, Kelly, Donna, Nikki, David and Brandon are there. Brandon is hesitant to dance yet, so Nikki accepts a request to dance from another fellow and then Steve asks her. Brandon gets angry and leaves.

Next day, Steve explains to Brandon, that they were just trying to get him to dance. Steve feels Brandon owes Nikki an apology. Dylan talks to Brandon about his interest in a group that wants to clean up the bay waters. They go to vote on the measure but Dylan wasn't a registered voter. Nikki gives dance lessons to Brandon at her house.

Sue invites Andrea to her home for dinner and to meet her family. Uncle Ernest, over Sue's protests, challenges her to tell the truth. Sue bursts into tears and confesses she tried to seduce Gil Meyers.

At school, the charges are dropped and Gil has been reinstated, but Mrs. Scanlon is keeping Sue in seclusion. The girls feel someone needs to talk to Sue. Because of his connection with the family, David and Donna are designated. They are greeted by a cheerful Sue Scanlon, much to their surprise. Mrs. Scanlon seems delighted to see them too. She tells them the whole family is moving to Oklahoma. She feels that it is best for Sue not to go back to West Beverly.

Donna and David are invited to stay for a backyard barbecue. Still a bit baffled by the sudden change of attitude, David and Donna make their way to the backyard where Uncle Ernest is cooking up hamburgers and engaging in playful games with Sue's younger sister. Donna tells Sue they have to leave but if she wants someone to talk to, she will be available. Sue is concerned about what the students at school are saying. Suddenly Sue says what really happened was that he grabbed her and put his hands on her and she tried to pull away. Donna is horrified saying why did she drop the charges. Sue bursts into tears saying it wasn't Meyers, it was her Uncle Ernest who molested her. Backed by Donna, Sue tells her mother the whole sordid story.

Brandon has gained new confidence in his dancing abilities and announces he and Nikki are off to check out a new dance club.

Episode 060 – Page 3

STARRING

Jason Priestley.....	Brandon Walsh
Shannon Doherty	Brenda Walsh
Carol Potter.....	Cindy Walsh
James Eckhouse	Jim Walsh
Luke Perry.....	Dylan McKay
Jennie Garth	Kelly Taylor
Ian Ziering.....	Steve Sanders
Brian Austin Green	David Silver
Doug Emerson.....	Scott Scalon
Gabrielle Carteris.....	Andrea Zuckerman
Tori Spelling	Donna Martin

EPISODE #061

DESTINY RIDES AGAIN

Donna, Kelly, Brenda and David are checking out the latest video movies. Donna notices David has disappeared. She finds him in the X-rated section. As they are walking away from that section, Donna sees the priest from her church, Father Chris. Donna is embarrassed but recovers her composure and promises to drop by for a chat with Father Chris. In another part of the store, Donna sees another familiar face. It is the boy Brenda had her fling with in Paris. Brenda is in a panic about what to do. She had told him she was French. Realizing escape is hopeless, Brenda goes over to Rick using her French accent and pretending to be visiting her aunt and uncle here in Los Angeles. Rick is delighted to see her. He has transferred to UCLA from the University of Minnesota.

Later, Brenda tells the girls she has agreed to go out with Rick just once, then she'll tell him she has to return to Paris. Kelly doesn't think this ruse will work but she wonders if it might be the answer to her desire to get together with Dylan.

Brenda surprises the family when she talks on the phone with Rick, using her French accent.

Kelly decides to paint the walls in her bedroom black. Her mother comments that no "happy teenager" paints her walls black. Kelly answers she always seems to fall in love with the wrong guys.

David is at Donna's house, and the' action is getting pretty steamy. David is ready to go all the way but Donna is not, and pushes him away.

At school, the group discusses their S.A.T. test scores. Steve admits he failed and realizes he probably won't be able to attend USC. Dylan's score was very high but the authorities are questioning it because he took the test in another district. He refuses to talk with the board or explain that he was visiting his father in prison, near that school.

Steve has a plan to attempt to alter his grade average in the school computer. He coerces his "freshman buddy," Herbert to use his computer skills to help him. Steve convinces the reluctant Herbert to break into the school's master computer files. While walking home from school, Andrea is struck by a speeding car at an intersection.

Episode 061 – Page 2

In a second session of heavy petting, Donna's virtue is saved by a phone call from Kelly, telling her about Andrea's accident. In Andrea's hospital room, Brandon has come to visit and is depressed to see she has broken both her legs. Nikki has gotten free tickets to an AIDS benefit telethon. Brandon invites Donna and David to join them for the show.

Steve, posing as a telephone company repairman, obtains the password for the school computer.

Dylan drops by to see Brenda while she is using her French accent in a phone conversation with Rick. He does not hear, however. He wants to talk to Jim Walsh about the board's challenge of his S.A.T. score. They think he hired someone to sit in for him and take the test. Jim suggests that Dylan agree to take the test again but he refuses saying it is a matter of principle.

Brandon, Nikki, Donna and David drop in to see Andrea and sign her leg casts, before going on to the telethon benefit.

At the show the mistress of ceremonies conducts informal interviews with the audience regarding their sexual habits. She talks to Brandon, Nikki and then to David and Donna.

Brenda and Dylan are discussing his refusal to take the S.A.T. test a second time. Dylan doesn't want to talk about it anymore. He says he is tired. Brenda reminds him that she told him about meeting a guy in Paris and how they've always been honest with each other. Dylan says he hasn't been completely honest with her. He did date while she was in France. He won't say who she was, and Brenda is somewhat aggravated.

David persuades Donna to let him stay the night at her house. He promises they will just lie on the bed side by side. "Only if you promise to go right to sleep" answers Donna. Donna has nightmares about her struggle with celibacy.

Rick comes to pick up Brenda for their date. Brenda tells her mother she has to pretend to be her aunt. Rick tells Brenda he wants to show her Los Angeles and particularly a restaurant called "Peach Pit." Her heart sinks, but she still hopes to pull off the ruse. Brandon and Nat almost blow it and finally Brenda confesses she is an American who lives in Beverly Hills.

Episode 061 – Page 3

On Saturday afternoon, Steve and Herbert, use the passkey to enter the computer room, to check things out. Donna visits her priest, Father Chris regarding her struggle to remain celibate. Rick still wants to date Brenda. She is now faced with making a choice between Rick and Dylan. She asks Brandon's advice but doesn't get much help.

Brenda goes to see Dylan. He is typing an angry letter to the board regarding the S.A.T. situation. They get in an argument about the letter and Dylan's attitude. Brenda says she feels they should give this relationship a rest, for a while. They part as friends but no longer committed to each other.

David is surprised that Donna has had a discussion about their relationship with Father Chris. Brandon visits Andrea in the hospital. She tells him she'll have to use a wheel chair for a month.

Later in the school computer room, Steve and Herbert enter the stolen password and then access the student grade files. As they are changing Steve's grades, something goes wrong and the computer shuts down. They panic and rush out.

As Kelly is adding the finishing touches to her paint job on the walls, the phone rings. Brenda is calling to tell her she has broken up with Dylan. As they are talking, Dylan walks in. Kelly tells Brenda she'll call her later. Dylan tells Kelly he wants to start seeing her again.

STARRING

Jason Priestley.....	Brandon Walsh
Shannon Doherty	Brenda Walsh
Carol Potter.....	Cindy Walsh
James Eckhouse	Jim Walsh
Luke Perry.....	Dylan McKay
Jennie Garth	Kelly Taylor
Ian Ziering.....	Steve Sanders
Brian Austin Green	David Silver
Doug Emerson.....	Scott Scalon
Gabrielle Carteris.....	Andrea Zuckerman
Tori Spelling	Donna Martin

EPISODE #062

“REBEL WITH A CAUSE”

Donna and Brenda discuss Brenda's new steady dating with Rick, only two days after her break up with Dylan. Everyone in school is talking about the attempted computer break-in, but no one except Steve's 'buddy,' Herbert, knows he was involved. Steve is nervous that Herbert may crack under the pressure.

Dylan tells Brandon that Mrs. Teasley wrote a great letter for him regarding the S.A.T. tests. Brandon comments on the Dylan/Brenda breakup and watches as Dylan joins Kelly in the school corridor. Kelly is tense about seeing Dylan in public but he reassures her his relationship with Brenda is finished.

Andrea is back in school, but still confined to her wheel chair. She's excited about a major story for the school paper on the computer break-in. Steve tries to ferret out of Andrea what she might know about the computer break-in. She tells him the police are in on the case now.

Brenda and Dylan are lab partners in class but manage to remain civil to each other. Brenda and Donna talk to Kelly. Brenda mentions her upcoming date with Rick. Kelly can't bring herself to confess about her close relationship with Dylan. Hutchins, the school janitor, levels a veiled threat at Steve about the computer files break-in and Steve offers him another hundred dollars to keep quiet about it.

Jim Walsh has a new temporary secretary who proves to be highly efficient. Rick arrives to pick up Brenda and ends up discussing business economics with Jim. Rick tells Jim he has read his book on "tax shelters." Jim is, of course, very impressed with Brenda's new boyfriend.

Dylan and Kelly have a date at the planetarium/ observatory. During the lecture they kiss and later slip outside. Rick and Brenda are at the Peach Pit. Rick refers to the restaurant as "their place" but Brenda has too many memories of other nights here, with Dylan. Donna and David come in and join them. It is a bit of an awkward moment.

Kelly and Dylan are enjoying the starlit skies from the observatory. Kelly says it's terrible that all people remember about a person seems to be the times they goofed up, not the times they did things right. Steve wheels Andrea into the Pit, in her wheel chair. Nat tells Andrea tonight's snack is on the house.

Episode 062 – Page 2

Andrea mentions a two hundred and fifty-dollar reward has been offered for information on the break-in at school. Herbert comes by to see Steve, but Steve tells him they'll have to talk later.

Kelly and Dylan have dinner together at an upscale restaurant and continue their intimate attentions to each other. Dylan suggests to Kelly that they spend the night together. As they are leaving they bump into Brenda and Rick. Brenda is shocked and angry to see them on a date together. The girls exchange bitter remarks.

Jim Walsh's new secretary stops by the house to deliver some typing to him. Cindy discovers that Dottie is not only very efficient and conscientious but also outstandingly beautiful. Cindy displays a bit of jealousy.

Rick and Brenda return home. She is still upset about seeing Kelly with Dylan. He tells her it was time to move on in her life. He promises to make her forget Dylan.

Dylan and Kelly discuss their new relationship. She wonders if, since Brenda broke off the affair with Dylan, is she just getting Dylan on the rebound. She is confused and saddened. Steve continues to be nice to Andrea. He has driven her to school and been very attentive.

Herbert tells Steve that the authorities are going to question all the computer class students. Steve tells him to stay cool. Andrea tells Brandon about the so called "legacy key," a master key that can open any door in the school building. Mrs. Teasley tells Dylan, the board has rejected his appeal, regarding the high S.A.T. score. Dylan is very upset.

Kelly and Brenda meet in the hallway. It is a very cool greeting and conversation regarding Rick and Dylan. Brandon tells Steve, Andrea knows about the school "pass key" and evidence is mounting that it was used by a student with a poor grade average. Steve scoffs at the idea.

Kelly has a discussion with David, about her romantic entanglement with Dylan. Later, she telephones Dylan, but he doesn't pickup. She leaves a recorded message for him to please call her.

Episode 062 – Page 3

Brenda is visibly upset at home. Cindy quizzes her and reminds her that Rick is invited to dinner tonight. Jim Walsh calls to say he'll be late. He is detained at the office. At the office, Jim tells Dottie he wants to hire her as his full time secretary.

Dinner is over and Rick continues to impress Jim with an intelligent discussion of tax laws and shelters. Brenda however, is rather bored. Rick mentions that he has an electronic Hatami keyboard the same as Jim has. Off they go to play a few tunes, much to Brenda's dismay.

Hutchins, the janitor meets with Steve and tells him that one hundred dollars won't cover the cost of keeping him quiet about the break-in. He wants more. Brenda tells Rick she is not sure they are right for each other. Rick argues the point but Brenda wants to stop seeing him. Dylan tells Brandon he's dropping out of school. Brandon tries to talk him out of it, but to no avail. Dylan's mind is made up.

STARRING

Jason Priestley.....	Brandon Walsh
Shannon Doherty	Brenda Walsh
Carol Potter.....	Cindy Walsh
James Eckhouse	Jim Walsh
Luke Perry.....	Dylan McKay
Jennie Garth	Kelly Taylor
Ian Ziering.....	Steve Sanders
Brian Austin Green	David Silver
Doug Emerson.....	Scott Scalon
Gabrielle Carteris.....	Andrea Zuckerman
Tori Spelling	Donna Martin

EPISODE #063

“WILD HORSES”

On a deserted highway, Dylan's Porsche has a breakdown. A young attractive woman named Anne Berford rides up on horseback. She jokingly asks if the car is his or stolen. Dylan smiles asking if there is a telephone nearby. Anne invites him to the ranch where she lives and raises horses.

Steve is still pumping Andrea for information about what the police have found out regarding the computer break-in. Andrea says the school locks have all been changed now. Brenda comments to Donna that no one seems to have heard from Dylan since he left school.

Steve, feeling more confident now, tells Herbert they have nothing to worry about now. Brandon makes a half-hearted attempt at apologizing to Steve, for suspecting him of the break-in. Nikki joins Brandon and tells David they will all be at his music talent showcase tonight.

Anne invites Dylan to stay the night so he can get his car repair part tomorrow. At the talent showcase, David gets up to sing a rap song but the mike causes a screeching feedback. His performance is a disaster.

Dylan finds out Anne is unmarried and inherited the huge house and ranch. She is more than casually interested in him as well.

David returns to the table where the group is sitting. He blames Steve for putting him on first before the mike was tested. The group tries to console David, but he knows they are lying. His song was very bad. Next up is a music group. Nikki recognizes the drummer. It's Diesel, her old boyfriend. Diesel tells Nikki he'd tried to find her. Nikki is flattered by this attention, but Brandon is beginning to burn. Nikki wants to join the group at a party but Brandon says no. He walks out in disgust.

Dylan is up early but finds Anne has already been out riding. Lowell, the trainer, tells Dylan the horse is a competitor in the circuit. Anne notices Dylan knows quite a bit about horses. He says he was around horses a lot when he was a kid. Anne offers to let him ride the show horse.

Brenda reprimands Brandon for walking out on Nikki. She feels he should have accepted the invitation to go with Nikki to the party. She tells Brandon to call up Nikki and apologize. When he telephones he finds out Nikki stayed out all night with Diesel.

Episode 063 – Page 2

David is still angry with Steve. Steve feels he is over reacting. Hutchins, the janitor, tells Steve he needs to talk to him right away. Hutchins tells Steve the police suspect him, so he's going to tell them Steve is the guilty one. He has to protect his retirement pension.

Nikki and Brandon have an argument in the hallway about her relationship with Diesel. Brandon says he doesn't want to be on a "time share plan."

Anne tells Dylan her rich parents were very demanding of her and she rebelled. She ran away and married a rodeo cowboy but they bought him off too. Anne asks Dylan to stay with her on the horse ranch, but he's not sure he wants another commitment.

Diesel drops by school and tells Nikki he wants her to come back with him. Nikki says she has a history test next period. Diesel insists she join him. Brandon overhears and speaks up asking Nikki if everything's all right. Diesel takes offense. Nikki asks Brandon to please leave. She can handle the situation, she says.

Anne tells Dylan they have guests for dinner and that she's laid out a clean shirt for him. Brandon joins Brenda in the school hallway. He says so far their senior year has been a disaster, both have been scorned by their love interests.

Steve asks Herbert to take the "fall" for him and confess to the break-in. Steve says, as a senior, the situation is much more serious for him but as a freshman, Herbert has time to make it all up. Herbert, however, doesn't go along with Steve's suggestion.

At dinner, Anne accepts an offer from her guests to buy the prize show horse. Dylan is disappointed that she would sell something she claimed to love. He is reminded that everything seems to have a price tag. Donna finally loses her cool with Brenda and Kelly and tells them both off.

Brandon finds out from Nikki's aunt that Diesel has a reputation of beating up on women.

In a motel room, Nikki finds Diesel has already tired of her company and picked up a new girl. He tells Nikki she is too possessive. Diesel grabs at her arm and is about to hit her when Brandon arrives at the door. Diesel and Brandon argue and a fight ensues. Brandon decks him and he and Nikki leave.

Episode 063 – Page 3

At the Walsh house, Nikki tells Brandon the reason she left San Francisco was because of Diesel. Brandon finds it difficult to see what she ever saw in the guy.

Kelly arrives at the Walsh house. She asks if Brenda will see her. Cindy tells her to go upstairs and find out. When Kelly walks into Brenda's bedroom, she's on the phone leaving a message for Kelly. They both start apologizing at the same time and end up laughing together over their silly misunderstandings.

Dylan tells Anne it's time for him! to move on. He's not ready to settle down here. There are things back in Los Angeles he misses.

Steve is called into Mrs. Teasley's office. He confesses to the computer break-in, but he refuses to include anyone else in the crime. Mrs. Teasley places him on suspension.

STARRING

Jason Priestley.....	Brandon Walsh
Shannon Doherty	Brenda Walsh
Carol Potter.....	Cindy Walsh
James Eckhouse	Jim Walsh
Luke Perry.....	Dylan McKay
Jennie Garth	Kelly Taylor
Ian Ziering.....	Steve Sanders
Brian Austin Green	David Silver
Doug Emerson.....	Scott Scalon
Gabrielle Carteris.....	Andrea Zuckerman
Tori Spelling	Donna Martin

EPISODE #064

“KINDNESS OF STRANGERS”

It is the day before Thanksgiving and it is a very rainy morning. The roof is leaking at the Walsh home much to the consternation of Cindy.

At school, Andrea has graduated to crutches and stops to tell Brandon that her grandmother has gone to Miami to visit relatives. Brandon insists she join them for a six PM Thanksgiving dinner.

Donna invites Kelly to join her for skiing but Kelly says she'd rather skip it this time. Brenda invites Kelly to join them for dinner. The question comes up as to where Dylan is spending Thanksgiving. Both girls deny any knowledge of his plans.

Dylan arrives at the prison where his father is held. He signs papers so his father, Jack, can be on a Thanksgiving furlough with him.

At the Peach Pit, Brandon finds Steve in a very depressed mood. Steve hasn't been able to tell his mother yet, that he's been kicked out of school. Brandon declines to help Steve break the news to his mother.

Before Steve can tell his mother, she reminds him that a limousine is picking them up in an hour to go to the taping of the television special in Santa Barbara. It features stars and their families.

Dylan and his father arrive at this Bungalow. Jack wants a drink right away and then says he's got to call a girl he knows. Dylan realizes his father hasn't changed at all. He tells Jack the only reason he agreed to this, was because the Parole Officer thought it would be good for him to spend time with his son.

Brandon invites Nat to come for Thanksgiving dinner but he declines, saying he always keeps the diner open for those people who have nowhere to go for the holiday. In the parking lot, Brandon sees a homeless man poling around in the trashcans. He calls him over and offers him some money to find a place to sleep out of the rain. Suddenly, Brandon recognizes the man. It is Jack Canner, from the beach last summer. Brandon insists they go inside and have Nat whip up some food. They sit in a booth and Brandon tells him he works part time at the Pit. Brandon tells Jack he's taking him to a Shelter for the Homeless nearby. While standing in line Jack changes his mind saying the shelter is for the "hopeless" not just "homeless."

Episode 064 – Page 2

Brandon takes Jack Canner home with him, as his guest. Steve and his mother, Samantha, arrive at a large mansion in Santa Barbara. The attractive, young production assistant catches Steve's eye immediately but Samantha, the daytime soap star, is less than pleased with the facilities and the service.

At home, Brandon shows Jack Canner where to shower up, Brenda, however, is not too pleased to have this stranger in her bathroom. Cindy approves of Brandon's hospitality but Jim reminds her that she was the one who wanted to call the police last Christmas when Brenda brought home a suspicious Santa Claus.

When Canner comes downstairs all cleaned up, Jim insists he sleep on the living room couch, not in the garage as Brandon suggests. It's Thanksgiving morning and Dylan is still angry with his father but gives in to Jack's request to call his girlfriend, Christine.

Kelly, Andrea and Brenda are helping with dinner preparations while the guys watch football on television. The doorbell rings. It's Donna and David. The roads were closed due to heavy snow in the mountains. Canner has found Jim's atlas interesting and Andrea joins him. Canner remembers she was camp counselor at the beach. He shows her places on the map that he visited. Others show interest as Canner talks about Kuwait. Canner asks Jim if he was in the armed forces but Jim avoids the question and heads for the kitchen to help Cindy. In the kitchen Jim is still upset about the question and reminds Cindy that Canner didn't show up for the job Brandon arranged for Kim, last summer.

At the mansion, Steve is getting better acquainted with Alyssa, the production assistant. Steve tells her about being expelled from school. At Dylan's, his father has called his girlfriend, Christine, and she shows up at the house carrying the makings for a Thanksgiving dinner that she picked up at the Peach Pit.

At the Walsh house cable TV has gone off. There's nothing to do now, but talk to each other. A comment by Donna about being lost without her credit cards brings out an angry remark by Canner about homeless people. This leads to an argument with Jim Walsh and suddenly Canner gets to his feet and is about to leave in disgust.

Episode 064 – Page 3

Everybody reacts to a loud crashing sound from the kitchen. The roof leak has caused the plaster to fall. Canner asks if there is any plastic drop cloth around. Using a ladder he climbs to the roof and spreads out the plastic as a temporary roof. Brandon helps secure the cover over the tiles. Inside Cindy and Brenda clean up the plaster mess. Brenda comments it was good that Canner was there to patch the roof.

At Dylan's, Christine has set the table with the turkey dinners she bought at the Peach Pit. As they began to eat, Christine tries to win Dylan over by asking about school. This leads to an argument between Dylan and his father. Christine tells Dylan to stop sulking and try to develop a father-son relationship with Jack.

At the Santa Barbara film location, Samantha and Steve are doing the scene for the camera. While Steve follows the cue cards, saying to Samantha how much he is thankful for her love and understanding, he adds that he has been expelled from school. The director shouts, "Cut!" and Samantha asks Steve to join her in another room for a private conversation. She says she's going to fight the school board about the expulsion.

Jim apologizes to Canner and thanks him for helping repair the roof. He stays for dinner. After calming down a bit, Dylan, Jack and Christine are playing a game of monopoly. At the mansion, Steve has an intimate get together with Alyssa.

Samantha, with Steven, visits Mrs. Teasley's office. Samantha tells her that she knows Steve is not a good student and he doesn't take his schoolwork seriously. But, she adds, to throw him out of class is a reward, not a punishment. Mrs. Teasley suggests Steve be punished by double detention. He must arrive an hour early and stay an hour after school, studying.

In the school corridor, as they chat about store sales on clothes, Brenda and Kelly look up to see Dylan walk past. He doesn't stop, but gives them a cheerful "Good morning" and continues on down the hall leaving Brenda and Kelly in stunned silence.

Episode 064 - Page 4

STARRING

Jason Priestley.....	Brandon Walsh
Shannon Doherty	Brenda Walsh
Carol Potter.....	Cindy Walsh
James Eckhouse	Jim Walsh
Luke Perry.....	Dylan McKay
Jennie Garth	Kelly Taylor
Ian Ziering.....	Steve Sanders
Brian Austin Green	David Silver
Doug Emerson.....	Scott Scalon
Gabrielle Carteris.....	Andrea Zuckerman
Tori Spelling	Donna Martin

EPISODE #065

“THE GAME IS CHICKEN”

Steve is rushing to his early morning detention class. He barely makes it on time and the teacher warns him about his lateness. A student taunts Steve with remarks about his mother's television show. The student, named Joe, has put a gooey chocolate brownie in Steve's chair, but Steve dares not cause a ruckus and tries to control his temper.

Andrea tells Brandon she's been attending hypnotherapy sessions in order to recall the identity of the driver of the car that hit her. She only has a fleeting remembrance of the accident but hopes to get the "hit and run" driver arrested. She can only recall a silvery star emblem of some sort.

Because of David doubling on courses, he can't spend as much time in his D.J. booth playing music. Donna volunteers to help out. Dylan complains to Brandon of his frustration, now that Brenda and Kelly are forcing him to make a choice between the two of them. Dylan's tells Steve that his arch nemeses, Joe, is a longtime "detention inmate."

Brenda and Kelly are bemoaning their standoff with Dylan. Cindy suggests they bring things to a head by making Dylan jealous. She tells them a friend of hers has a son who goes to Princeton and he has a friend visiting. They would be a great double date for Brenda and Kelly. The girls are excited about dating two college boys.

At school, Donna begins her new job as D.J. rather nervously, but soon begins to loosen up and receives praise from all her friends. Steve finds himself the butt of another practical job when his Corvette is stuffed with half a dozen live chickens. Joe appears on the scene telling Steve it was only a joke. He shows Steve his own suped-up hot rod car and Steve is very intrigued. Joe offers to show him how fast the car will race on the straight away from a dead stop.

Brandon goes with Steve to see Joe's car drag race with another supped-up car. Joe says he's sure he can beat the other car. He asks Steve to lend him one hundred dollars. When he wins the race he'll pay Steve back double his money. Brandon gets caught up in the wager too, not realizing they are being set up in a con game. Of course, Joe's car easily out-distances the other car. Steve and

Episode 065 – Page 2

Brandon are hooked on this apparently easy way to make money and are anxious about the next race.

At the Peach Pit, Dylan warns Steve and Brandon that Joe and his friends are scammers and they had better watch out. Andrea overhears and is surprised that Brandon would be involved with drag racing on the streets, after she was almost killed by a drag stripper.

At school, Joe tells Steve about the next car race with faster cars and bigger bets. Steve is hesitant to get involved in putting up any money, after what Dylan told him, but he is tempted.

Donna is getting a bit carried away with the D.J. job and David is getting worried. Joe talks to Brandon about the upcoming drag race. Brandon doesn't have any money to be a 'backer,' but he promises to talk to Steve.

Brenda and Kelly, still peeved at Dylan's lack of decision, decide to double date the fellows from Princeton, to make him jealous. Brandon tells Steve he can scrap together one hundred if Steve will come up with the rest of the fifteen hundred dollars. Dylan warns them again. When Dylan hears the other driver is Frank Padilla, a drug dealer, he says they have got to be crazy to be mixed up in this.

Kelly and Brenda are anxiously awaiting the arrival of their blind dates from Princeton. The front door opens to reveal two extremely nerdy guys. They attend Princeton School in the Valley, not the Ivy League College. Too late to back out now, Brenda and Kelly are stuck with their blind dates.

The drag race is about to start and Brandon and Steve have met Frank Padilla. He is very intimidating. Kelly and Brenda find their blind dates are right out of their worst nightmares. Wayne and Adam are totally involved in video games as the girls stand idly watching, wondering why they got all dressed up for this evening on the town.

Brandon and Steve took over the competition car, a silver Chevy. Suddenly, Brandon notices an ornament hanging from the rear view mirror, a cluster of glitter-coated stars. He remembers Andrea saying something about star ornaments on the car that smashed into her in the crosswalk. Brandon goes to notify the police and get Andrea to do an ID on the car. Steve tries to stall the start of the race.

Episode 065 – Page 3

As a last minute stall, Steve demands that he drive Joe's car in the race, since he's backing it with his money. Joe doesn't like this idea. It upsets his plans and Padilla's getting very impatient.

The blind date with the two nerds goes on at the fun arcade with Kelly and Brenda trying to make the best of it.

When Frank Padilla continues to make disparaging remarks about Steve's mother they almost come to blows. Frank challenges Steve to a "game of chicken" with both cars racing toward each other. The first car to swerve is the loser, he says. Steve agrees, as he climbs into his Corvette and jerks his car into gear.

Kelly and Brenda are wishing they'd never decided to do this blind date stunt to make Dylan jealous. Suppose he turns them both down, they speculate.

At the drag strip, Dylan arrives in his Porsche. The two racers are speeding toward each other. Dylan guns his Porsche and cuts across in front of the two racing cars. At the last minute Padilla swerves and skids to a stop avoiding a collision.

Police cars arrive along with Brandon and Andrea. Andrea identifies the silver Chevy with the star ornaments. The police arrest Frank Padilla as the hit and run driver that caused Andrea's injuries.

The group gathers at the Peach Pit as Kelly and Brenda arrives with their nerd dates. The girls bravely face the gang and introduce their dates from "Princeton."

At school, David decides it would be good to have Donna join him as a D.J. host on the daily broadcast.

Kelly and Brenda stick a two-shot photograph of themselves, taken at the fun arcade, on the door of Dylan's locker. This is to remind him he still must make a choice between the two of them.

Episode 065 – Page 4

STARRING

Jason Priestley.....	Brandon Walsh
Shannon Doherty	Brenda Walsh
Carol Potter.....	Cindy Walsh
James Eckhouse	Jim Walsh
Luke Perry.....	Dylan McKay
Jennie Garth	Kelly Taylor
Ian Ziering.....	Steve Sanders
Brian Austin Green	David Silver
Doug Emerson.....	Scott Scalon
Gabrielle Carteris.....	Andrea Zuckerman
Tori Spelling	Donna Martin

EPISODE #066

“IT’S A TOTALLY HAPPENING LIFE”

Against a starry night sky, we hear two voices of "would-be angels" discussing a challenge, they face.

At West Beverly High the Madrigal Singers are serenading as David video tapes the group. Down the hall, Kelly, Dylan and Brenda are wrapping toys for underprivileged children. The two angels observe all these activities and comment in "Voice-Over." David continues to tape interviews. Now Brandon and Andrea do a version of "The Night Before Christmas."

Steve is asked to be Santa for the Alvarado Street kids but says he's barred from all school activities. The group picks Dylan to play Santa. In the school newspaper Press Room, Andrea hears from her grandmother that a very thin letter has come for her, from Yale University, she is depressed. It can only be a rejection notice. Andrea and Brandon go to her house to check the letter. With trembling hands she opens the letter and finds she has been accepted at Yale. She's overjoyed, but Brandon is a little saddened to know that she wouldn't be attending a local college. The second letter to Andrea is from her boyfriend, Jay. He is breaking off their relationship.

At home, Brandon, Brenda and their parents discuss Jay's letter to Andrea. Dylan and Kelly drop by to help trim the Christmas tree. The two angels comment on the wonderful family the Walshs have and discuss the Brenda, Dylan, Kelly relationship.

Gil Meyers, who lost the bet with Andrea about her acceptance at Yale, agrees to shave off his beard. David is feeling a little sad. He tells Donna in a few months all his friends will be leaving for college and he'll be left behind for another year of school.

Andrea is beginning to feel depressed about the break up with Jay. She asked Brandon to join her for a movie but he has plans with Nikki, he says. -

Nikki tells Brandon, her folks want her to move back to San Francisco. She's leaving in a few days. He's stunned that she wants to leave. Brenda joins Brandon to tell him she's had a falling out with Dylan and Kelly.

Episode 066 – Page 2

Their agreement to keep the relationship between the three of them strictly platonic has not worked. Brenda has shared a good night kiss with Dylan that was more than platonic. She feels guilty now.

David is even more depressed when he learns his mother is moving to Oregon. Brenda, Donna, Dylan and Kelly try to console him. Dylan is still reluctant to play Santa Claus at the Alvarado Street School for the kids.

At Dylan's house, Kelly is trying to convince him to play Santa. She says she promised to persuade him, whatever it takes. Dylan seizes this offer and they are in full passionate embrace in a few moments. Brenda arrives and before knocking, sees them through the window. She is stunned that they have deceived her but delivers the Santa Claus outfit to Dylan. The girls exchange a few choice words while Dylan tries to rise above it all.

The two angels monitor the whole scene in "Voice-Over" dialogue.

Brenda tells Donna about the new disagreement with Kelly and Dylan and that she wants to drop out of participation in the Alvarado Street School festivities. Donna talks to Dylan, but he finds the whole idea of a "one day party" hypocritical and shortsighted. Kelly also excuses herself from the joining the group. David gets cold feet on the project because it is not a junior class one. Donna becomes even more desperate when Andrea and Brandon cancel out. In final desperation, Donna goes to Mrs. Teasley. She orders them all to get on the bus immediately and attend the function.

On the bus, the "angels" discuss the silly misunderstandings between our group, which was blown out of proportion. The "angels" know that danger lies ahead as the bus heads for the party for underprivileged children. It is on a collision course with a pick up truck.

At the Alvarado Street School, Steve has violated his school detention and arrived for the kid's party. Meyers sees him and asks why the bus is late. The "angels" are monitoring the bus and trying to determine how to prevent the collision. On the bus, the group, along with the High School singers are unaware of the pending doom. Our gang is still grumpy and lacking any evidence of Christmas Spirit. Finally, Donna loses patience with the lot of them and tells them off. Slowly, their icy attitudes began to thaw.

Episode 066 – Page 3

At the last minute the "angels" pull off a miracle that causes the bus and truck to avoid a collision. The group arrives safely with the presents for the kids. Steve dresses up as Santa Claus and distributes gifts.

Brenda tells Dylan he'll have to decide by New Year's which girl he's going to spend time with next year. Donna is delighted the party has been a big success.

STARRING

Jason Priestley.....	Brandon Walsh
Shannon Doherty	Brenda Walsh
Carol Potter.....	Cindy Walsh
James Eckhouse	Jim Walsh
Luke Perry.....	Dylan McKay
Jennie Garth	Kelly Taylor
Ian Ziering.....	Steve Sanders
Brian Austin Green	David Silver
Doug Emerson.....	Scott Scalon
Gabrielle Carteris.....	Andrea Zuckerman
Tori Spelling	Donna Martin

EPISODE #067

“MIDLIFE-NOW WHAT?”

At school, Steve is trying to interest some of the guys in a party being given on the weekend, but they all have other plans.

The girls are excited about their weekend trip to an exclusive health spa, with their mothers. Donna says her mother doesn't want to go, so she invites Andrea to join them. It is a free promotional weekend, all expenses paid visit. Andrea is reluctant at first, but rationalizes she could write an article on the visit, for the school paper.

At the Walsh house, Cindy has made up special dinners for Jim and Brandon. Jim says he'll be at the office most of the time doing a special audit for a client. Cindy is a bit uneasy about the fact that his very attractive secretary, Dottie, will be working with him.

At the Peach Pit, Brandon places a seventy-five dollar bet on a Knicks game, with bookie, Duke Weatherill. Steve is still trying to interest the guys in the Pacific Palisades party, without success.

Arriving at the health spa, the girls are impressed with the posh surroundings, until Kelly recognizes one of the staff as having been her mother's cocaine connection. Kelly tells Brenda who Babette is and why she is upset.

At home, Brandon kids his father about rushing off to the office and skipping meals that Cindy had prepared. Cindy telephones but just misses Jim. She is not sure she can trust Dottie, the sexy secretary, with Jim for the whole weekend. Cindy kicks up a paperback copy of a book called, "Midlife--Now What?" Jackie reassures her Jim can be trusted.

At the office, Dottie comments that Jim is a genius to be able to solve complex math problems in his head.

At the spa, the girls are enjoying the facilities, including exercise equipment and mud baths. Kelly is not too happy when a masseuse tells her "they'll take care of her problem areas."

Episode 067 – Page 2

At the Peach Pit, Duke, the bookie, comes by to pay off Brandon on his bet. Brandon tells him to roll it over on another bet. Brandon talks to Dylan over breakfast about his very depressed mood. Dylan still can't decide which girl he likes best.

During the messages, Gina mentions that a friend of hers dated a married man in Beverly Hills until her friend Sheila won him away from her. She adds that it was strange for two good friends to fight over a man. Kelly and Brenda exchange a quick glance. Dylan tells Nat about his indecision over which girl he likes best. Nat tells him that at least he's not already married. Dylan fantasizes about what married life would be like with Brenda and a house full of kids.

Cindy and Jackie discuss some of the statistics on marital infidelity. Cindy feels uneasy and telephones Jim Walsh but Dottie answers saying he is in a meeting.

Later, Dottie takes in some lunch to Jim and Dr. Kramer. Kramer comments that Dottie must be rather distracting. Jim admits she is very sexy and asks Dr. Kramer's advice. Kramer hands Jim a copy of his book, "Midlife-Now What?"

Babette visits Cindy and Jackie in their hotel suite. She laughs about the wild times she and Jackie used to have and how they used cocaine. Jackie says she doesn't use the drug anymore, now that she has a loving husband and new baby.

While getting a facial, Brenda overhears Gina telling a guest that the Beverly Hills man her girlfriend dates is a man named Mel Silver, a dental surgeon. Brenda is stunned and troubled that Kelly's mother will find out about her husband's infidelity. The boys are moping around, with their girlfriends out of town. Dylan asks David how things are going at home with baby Erin.

David says he's doing the baby-sitting because his father was at his weekly poker game. His dad deserves some relaxation because he, works very hard to provide the luxuries that Jackie and Kelly enjoy, he adds. Dylan fantasizes about what it would be like to be married to Kelly. Is she just a spoiled, materialistic girl? He ponders the idea as he jolts back to reality.

Brenda tells Kelly about hearing from the masseuse that Mel Silver is being unfaithful to her mother, Jackie. Kelly telephones David to ask if he was home last night. David says his father did not sleep at home the last two nights.

Episode 067 – Page 3

Kelly feels she must tell her mother but fears the news might trigger a return to drugs and alcohol for Jackie. Kelly hopes her mother is strong willed enough to resist the temptation.

Jackie confesses the news of Mel's infidelity to Babette. Babette's suggestion is that Jackie needs a "little pick-me-up snort of cocaine." Later Jackie tells Kelly she resisted Babette's cocaine offer, because she now has a young baby who needs her.

At the office, Dottie tells Jim she has to talk to him about something very important, Jim think she is going to confess that she is in love with him, instead she says she must resign her job because she is getting married and moving out of state.

Cindy gets a phone call from Jim telling her about Dottie. Much relieved Cindy now finds herself offering sympathy to Jackie over her husband's infidelity.

While watching a televised basketball game he has bet on, a news report comes on saying that Dylan's father, Jack McKay has been released from prison. Dylan and Brandon are stunned by the surprise announcement.

STARRING

Jason Priestley.....	Brandon Walsh
Shannon Doherty	Brenda Walsh
Carol Potter.....	Cindy Walsh
James Eckhouse	Jim Walsh
Luke Perry.....	Dylan McKay
Jennie Garth	Kelly Taylor
Ian Ziering.....	Steve Sanders
Brian Austin Green	David Silver
Doug Emerson.....	Scott Scalon
Gabrielle Carteris.....	Andrea Zuckerman
Tori Spelling	Donna Martin

EPISODE #068

“BACK IN THE HIGHLIFE”

Dylan's father has been unexpectedly released on parole from prison. Dylan is pleased but puzzled as to how this was accomplished. They are riding home in a limousine. Jack calls his girlfriend, Christine to have her contact some of his business acquaintances. He wonders which ones are still speaking to him. At the hotel they are greeted by a barrage of reporters who have a lot of questions about who is going to pay back the investors who lost money on Jack's scams. Jack tells them to call his lawyers and that he just plans to spend some time with his son, Dylan.

Jackie and Mel are having a heated argument about Mel's infidelity. David and Kelly can hear the confrontations upstairs and sit staring, at each other. David apologizes for his father's behavior but Kelly says it is not his fault. She admits she liked Mel but can't believe he would do this to Jackie. David wonders where he'll be living if Mel and Jackie get a divorce.

Dylan calls from the hotel to invite Kelly and David to a party, celebrating his father's release. David declines saying he is going to Donna's to study.

The Walshs are watching the news on television of Jack McKay's release. Jim has some caustic remarks about this swindler serving only two years of a ten-year sentence. When Brenda gets a call from Dylan regarding the party, Jim tells Brenda he does not want her to be around Jack McKay. Reluctantly she obeys her father.

At the Peach Pit, Steve tells Brandon he is not going to the party. He's got tickets for a basketball game. Andrea asks Steve's opinion about woman's hair color. She wonders if she should change her hair color to blond.

At the party, only Kelly shows up. Dylan covers up his hurt feelings. She meets Jack McKay and others. Kelly tells Dylan about the problems her mother and Mel are having at home. Dylan asks her to stay the night with him but she says she cannot, They go swimming in the hotel pool.

Brenda wants to talk to Brandon about Kelly going to Dylan's party but her brother is too busy watching a basketball game on which he has placed a sizable bet. In the pool, Kelly and Dylan kiss but Kelly pulls away. She wonders if Dylan would be coming on to her if Brenda were at the party. Kelly feels she and Dylan must tell Brenda everything, even about their relationship last summer.

Episode 068 – Page 2

Andrea has a new attitude toward life since her visit to the health spa. Donna is helping her pick out a highlight hair streaking color. They agree there is no sin in being attractive.

Over breakfast, Jack McKay tells Dylan he had a little money stashed away but it will soon run out. Jack mentions that Dylan's trust fund could earn him a lot more money if invested properly.

Jim Walsh gets a phone call from Jack McKay to discuss Dylan's trust fund. Brenda expresses concern for her father and for Dylan, regarding the trust fund. Mel has a talk with his son, David. He says he is moving out. He wants David to live at his new apartment until he graduates in June. David refuses and angrily condemns his father for destroying the marriage.

At school, Dylan invites Kelly to dinner with him, Jack and Christine. Kelly is not sure about this. She still wants to confess everything to Brenda. Brenda joins them for an awkward moment before Dylan leaves. Kelly says she found Jack McKay very nice but Brenda says he has a very dark side too.

Dylan talks to Steve and Brandon but is still hurt that they didn't come to the party. Donna is helping Andrea streak her hair. David offers a few joking remarks that are not appreciated by Andrea. David says he had better go home to start packing. He feels Kelly and Jackie won't want him around as a reminder of what his father has done.

Nat tells Brandon he forgot to call in his bet on last night's game. He offers to give the disappointed Brandon the hundred dollars he would have won. Brandon says no to Nat's offer, but does ask for the bookie's telephone number so he can call in his own bets in the future. Nat is hesitant to do this.

In the meeting with Jim Walsh, Dylan says he wants his father to handle his trust fund investments. Jim says Jack can't because he is a convicted felon. Jack says he wants to dissolve the trust fund. It would take three signatures, his, Jim's, and Iris, Dylan's mother.

Brandon and Brenda discuss her not going to Dylan's party. She is worried that Jack McKay may be a crook. Brandon says she doesn't have to like Jack in order to like Dylan.

Episode 068 – Page 3

Dylan makes Kelly agree to meet with Brenda and both of them will tell her about their relationship. Kelly says she will do it.

Jackie is waiting up for Kelly when she gets home. They discuss her love for Dylan and the fact that she has not told Brenda. Jackie says Mel is moving out. Erin cries and they go up to her room. David is already there with her bottle. When he says he is going to miss all of them, Jackie says he can live there as long as he wants. At school, Dylan is rather cool to Brenda when she suggests they go to a movie. He says he is going to be busy with his father.

Donna and David exchange comments over the school radio regarding David being a bit "spacey" lately. Andrea drops by and they both tell her the hair job looks great. Later, David says he really didn't notice any difference. In the school newsroom, Andrea asks a puzzled Brandon how he likes it. He does not know what she means but Steve saves the day by telling her the dye job looks terrific.

Dylan apologizes to Brandon for being rude about the party. He now realizes Brandon had to work. Dylan and Kelly go to see Brenda to tell her about their relationship. They take a walk as they tell Brenda. Brenda does not take the news lightly. She storms away saying she doesn't want to talk to either of them again. Dylan says he hopes she will be all right.

STARRING

Jason Priestley.....	Brandon Walsh
Shannon Doherty	Brenda Walsh
Carol Potter.....	Cindy Walsh
James Eckhouse	Jim Walsh
Luke Perry.....	Dylan McKay
Jennie Garth	Kelly Taylor
Ian Ziering.....	Steve Sanders
Brian Austin Green	David Silver
Doug Emerson.....	Scott Scalon
Gabrielle Carteris.....	Andrea Zuckerman
Tori Spelling	Donna Martin

EPISODE #069

“PARENTAL GUIDANCE RECOMMENDED”

Brenda has a fantasy as she is packing up photographs of her romance with Dylan. "If they had approached this whole breakup in a more mature manner, maybe they'd still be together," she ponders. Suddenly her anger flares up and she imagines that she goes after Dylan and Kelly with an ax.

At Dylan's house, he and Kelly are making out on the couch. Kelly reminds him he has to straighten up the place before he goes to pick up his mother, Iris, at the airport. While still on the couch, a knock is heard at the door. Iris has taken an earlier plane. She meets Kelly and is surprised to see her, instead of Brenda at Dylan's house.

At the Peach Pit, David is being firm in his decision to fire Steve as his manager. He doesn't feel Steve is a good manager. Donna speaks up and reminds David she's been helping him out as the school disc jockey, so he can double up on his schoolwork. How can he have time to do a new record and all the extra class work? Without the extra courses, he won't graduate with the rest of the group.

Andrea drops by, in a worried mood. She's been invited to a tea for the Fall of 1993, "Freshman at Yale." She feels she can't compete on a social level with the other students.

Kelly joins the group and tells Donna she needs to talk. She tells her about meeting Dylan's mother. She feels Iris doesn't like her and prefers Dylan date Brenda. Kelly tells Brandon that Brenda still won't speak to her.

At home, Brenda is still in a very blue mood. Brandon tells her that the gang asked about her. He adds that Iris is in town to meet with Jim Walsh. Brenda confesses to Brandon that she never imagined that Dylan would not choose her, over Kelly.

Brandon tells his parents that he plans to buy a CD player for his car. Brenda tells her father she knows that Dylan and his mother are meeting with him but she had rather not hear any of the details.

Episode 069 – Page 2

Iris tells Jim Walsh that her ex-husband is a shrewd man, a con-artist. She wishes Dylan could realize that about his father. Dylan tells his father he wants to believe he is a changed man, and that he really has his son's best interest at heart. Jack asks Dylan to spend time with Iris and find out what she plans to do about the trust fund.

Dylan drops by to see Kelly and apologizes for his mother's rudeness. Kelly reminds Dylan it is past midnight and it's Valentine's Day. They kiss. Steve takes David to see the Icon Records chief, Curtis Bray. Donna goes along too. Mr. Bray is busy and they have to wait.

Dylan invites Iris to take a ride to Ojai for the day. She's impressed that he is more considerate than he used to be. Dylan says he wishes she could sit down with his father and try to sort things out. She agrees to join Dylan and Jack for dinner.

At the Yale "New Students" tea, Andrea is lonely and bored until she meets an old friend named, Jordan Bonner. While shopping for his new CD player, Brandon finds his choice of equipment is too expensive. Suddenly, when he sees a sports commercial on a television set, he uses the phone to call in a bet with his bookies.

Brenda daydreams that Kelly comes to see her, intent on apologizing. As they discuss being friends again, Brenda decides vengeance is more to her liking. She takes a pair of scissors to Kelly's hair. At the Yale student tea party, Andrea confesses to Jordan that she'll have to get a job, even with the scholarship.

David and Steve finally get into see Curtis Bray, the record chief. He overwhelms them both. He sends Steve out of the office to get some free CD's of recording stars. Then he tells David to fire Steve as his manager or they won't have a recording deal.

Jack, Iris and Dylan are having drinks before going out to dinner. Iris is very suspicious of Jack's motives about Dylan's trust fund. She says he bought her off once, kept her away from her son, but now she's in control. Iris storms out in disgust with Jack.

Brenda is dressed and ready for school but feeling very down emotionally. She tells her father she's trying to be mature about Dylan's rejection of her. Iris talks to Dylan about his faith in his father. She is shaken by the fact that Dylan seems to love and respect him.

Episode 069 – Page 3

Dylan says he's had a lot of rejection in his life and now that his father needs him he is not going to turn his back.

David tries to tell Steve that the record company will sign him only if he fires Steve as his manager. Steve does not listen. David tells Donna and Kelly of his dilemma, regarding Steve. The girls feel he may need a manager to protect him and he should investigate Curtis Bray thoroughly, before signing a contract.

Brandon talks to Andrea about her "Yalie" tea party. She is still feeling intimidated by all the "blue bloods" who were there. A valentine comes by fax to Andrea, from her friend Jordan Bonner.

Dylan tells Kelly he struck out with Iris, regarding changing his trust fund. He guesses he'll have to wait until he is twenty-one. Kelly sees Brenda and tries to talk to her, but her friend "freezes her out."

Iris drops by the Walsh house to deliver her gift to Brenda. She goes upstairs and Brenda is pleased with the crystal pendant, which is said to give inner strength to the wearer. David meets with Steve at the Peach Pit to tell him about Curtis Bray's ultimatum to fire Steve, or there's no recording deal. Steve is hurt and angry.

Iris tells Dylan that on the way to the airport she'll stop by Jim Walsh's office and sign the trust fund papers, since that's what he wants. Kelly and Brenda meet in the school hallway. Brenda speaks briefly and both are relieved to end their feud.

Instead of throwing out all her mementos of her romance with Dylan, Brenda stores it in the garage. In addition to his new car stereo, Brandon surprises his mother and Brenda with gifts of perfume. Jim Walsh, still suspicious of Jack McKay, vows to go slow in dissolving Dylan's trust fund.

Episode 069 – Page 4

STARRING

Jason Priestley.....	Brandon Walsh
Shannon Doherty	Brenda Walsh
Carol Potter.....	Cindy Walsh
James Eckhouse	Jim Walsh
Luke Perry.....	Dylan McKay
Jennie Garth	Kelly Taylor
Ian Ziering.....	Steve Sanders
Brian Austin Green	David Silver
Doug Emerson.....	Scott Scalon
Gabrielle Carteris.....	Andrea Zuckerman
Tori Spelling	Donna Martin

EPISODE #070

“DEAD END”

At Marina Yacht Basin, Jack McKay, is showing and his girlfriend, Christine, a very large boat he has acquired. Dylan is puzzled as to where his father got so much money, but is impressed by the beautiful yacht. Jack introduces them to the captain, Terry, and his first mate, Mel. They seem pleasant on the surface but when Dylan and Christine go below deck, Terry cautions Jack that it's "too late to keep Dylan out of it. "

In a large van, parked nearby, we see two men taping all the conversations from Jack's new floating home. We hear Terry warn Jack to "speed things up or their deal will go sour very quickly."

Jack mentions to Dylan that they should have heard something from Jim Walsh about dissolving the trust. His father asks Dylan to call Jim and find out what is holding things up.

At the Walsh house, Jim criticizes Brandon for only reading the sports page. Brenda and Cindy come in from the morning jog, with news that a friend got mugged in the park. Cindy and Brenda announce they are going to attend a self-defense course on the weekend.

At Kelly's house, her mother tells her and David that she is going to have to put the house up for sale. The expenses are more than she can manage, she says. David's new-record producer calls to say they will start the initial work on the recording next week. He is a bit over-whelmed by the news.

In the school corridor, Steve joins Brandon. They talk about all the money Brandon has made from sports betting. Steve cautions him that Lady Luck can frown on you as well as smile. David walks up, still feeling guilty about dumping Steve, but his former manager doesn't want to talk about it.

Brenda asks Donna to join her and Cindy for the self-defense workshop. Donna would rather be with David and tries to talk Andrea into going with Brenda. But Andrea surprises everyone by saying she has a heavy date.

Dylan drops by Jim Walsh's office to inquire about the trust fund settlement delays. Jim admits he is going slowly because he is looking out for Dylan's best interests. Dylan gets angry and storms out.

Episode 070 – Page 2

Jackie is straightening up the house for the first public showing next day. Kelly tells her she's missing her phone conversations with Brenda. Cindy and Brenda attend the self-defense workout and persuade Donna to join them.

Dylan and his father discuss his son's visit to see Jim Walsh. Jack is not pleased to hear of the delay in the settlement. We see that their conversation is being recorded.

At the Peach Pit, Brandon admits to Steve that he's lost several bets lately. Andrea comes in with her date, Jordan Bonner, the black student. Brandon greets them and congratulates Jordan on going to Yale. Steve notices some evidence of jealousy as Andrea walks away with a new friend. Andrea and Jordan joke about which one of them will end up as editor of the Yale Daily News.

The girls are getting really into the self-defense training. Later at home, Cindy tells Jim she's surprised how much anger Brenda seems to have bottled up inside her. They also discuss Jim's concern about Dylan's trust fund. Cindy says maybe they should stop being Dylan's surrogate parents.

Kelly finds the crowds of "looky loos" who have come to inspect their house, too much to be around. She and Jackie leave the real estate agent in charge, and go for a drive. Dylan and Jack go to Jim Walsh's office Jim tells them he has decided to sign the papers. Jack and Dylan are delighted.

Kelly joins Dylan, Jack and Christine for dinner on the yacht. It is a pleasant get together and ends up with Jack asking Christine to marry him. We see the men sitting in the parked van on the dock as they record these conversations.

The real estate agents deliver disappointingly low sales price offers to Jackie. Kelly is off to join Dylan at the yacht basin in the rain. He wants to go sailing but it's raining very heavily now. Kelly spots a man staring at them through binoculars. Dylan shrugs it off as just a man who knows a pretty woman when he sees one. They move into an embrace and kiss warmly.

Brandon tells Steve he's into his bookie for over two hundred dollars. Steve offers to lend him the money to cover his losses, but Brandon refuses. Brenda and Cindy try some of their self-defense routine, in the living room. Jim chides them about "hoping he doesn't meet them in a dark alley."

Episode 070 – Page 3

Brenda and Brandon discuss the fact that Dylan is suddenly a very rich man. Brenda wonders if it might change Dylan. Kelly and Dylan are into some heavy petting on the yacht. Dylan comments that now with all his inheritance he'll never know if Kelly loves him for himself or for his money.

The self-defense class is taken to heart by Cindy as she demonstrates some killer moves. After Kelly has left, Jack asks Dylan if he is really pleased to have Christine as his future stepmother. Dylan says he likes Christine. Jack starts to reveal some business secrets to Dylan but is quickly interrupted by Captain Terry. Terry takes Jack aside and warns him to keep his mouth shut about business matters or both he and Dylan could end up dead.

Steve tells David he is really happy for him and about his new recording contract. He'd just better send him free tickets when he is a famous concert star. Brandon tells I-Lis bookie he can't pay off his betting loses this week. The bookie says it's ok this time, but next time it will mean big trouble.

Jackie tells Kelly and David she's decided to hold out for a better offer on their house. Jack and Dylan have a warm moment of recalling memories of Dylan's childhood. During the night, we see an explosive device placed under Jack's car. Next morning, a neighbor warns that the meter maid will give out a ticket to their car if it isn't moved. Dylan starts to go to move it, but Kelly calls on the phone. Jack goes to move the car. The car explodes in a gigantic burst of flames.

STARRING

Jason Priestley.....	Brandon Walsh
Shannon Doherty	Brenda Walsh
Carol Potter.....	Cindy Walsh
James Eckhouse	Jim Walsh
Luke Perry.....	Dylan McKay
Jennie Garth	Kelly Taylor
Ian Ziering.....	Steve Sanders
Brian Austin Green	David Silver
Doug Emerson.....	Scott Scalon
Gabrielle Carteris.....	Andrea Zuckerman
Tori Spelling	Donna Martin

EPISODE #071

“THE CHILD IS FATHER TO THE MAN”

Dylan is still suffering from the traumatic experience of seeing his father killed in a car bomb explosion. He wakes from the recurring nightmare and tries to calm himself.

Next day at the Peach Pit, David is telling Steve the dilemma he faces of having his first recording session at the same time as Dylan's father's funeral. Steve tells him he's sorry but if he hadn't fired him as his manager, maybe he could reschedule the session. On the television, Brandon is watching the news people swarming around Dylan's house hoping for an interview. He is disgusted with their insensitivity.

Inside his house, Dylan is trying to reach his mother in Hawaii, without success. He leaves a message for Iris. Kelly joins him, and seeing him frustrated and tense, extends her sympathy. The doorbell rings and Kelly lets Jim Walsh inside. She tells him she's worried about Dylan.

Jim talks to Dylan and invites him to come and stay at their house. Brenda sent word she wishes that he would come, he adds. Dylan accepts the invitation to go to the Walsh house but Kelly is not sure of her feelings. She feels inadequate in helping Dylan through this crisis. Kelly goes home while Jim and Dylan run the gauntlet of news reporters to their car. We see Borman, one of the heavies involved in Jack McKay's death, make veiled threats about Dylan, from a nearby vantage point.

At the Walsh house, Dylan is hesitant to go inside. He is joined by Brandon and Brenda who tell him they're glad he's here. The three of them discuss Dylan's reluctance to attend the funeral. Brenda tells Dylan she feels he ought to attend the services.

Kelly is at her house, telling Donna what has happened. David tells them he made a meatloaf for dinner but Kelly says she really doesn't have any appetite. The reporters have now set up their cameras and equipment on the Walsh's lawn. Dylan sleeps on a cot in Brandon's room.

Dylan can't sleep so he wanders downstairs. He sees Jim's liquor cabinet. He argues with his inner-self over this temptation. The desire for relief from his anxiety overwhelms him. He grabs a bottle of Scotch and gulps down a mouthful.

Episode 071 – Page 2

Next morning, the press has not yet returned but the morning newspaper has Dylan's photograph on the front page. They agree to hide the paper from Dylan. Donna arrives to take Kelly to Jack McKay's funeral, but finds her feeling ill. Donna is angry that David is going to rush from the funeral to his recording session. They are all invited to the Walsh house afterward. Kelly says she will go to the funeral.

Brenda stops in to see if Dylan is ready. He comments that he sees she has taken down all their photographs she had on the wall. She tells him she was very hurt but nothing like the hurt he is going through now. They hug each other.

At the mortuary, Dylan embraces Christine. They both try to maintain their composure, under the pressure. The rest of the group have come for the services, and outside the reporters have gathered in even greater numbers, hoping to get some comments from Dylan. Donna, Kelly and David arrive late.

After the services, the group awaits Dylan, near the entrance. Brenda invites Kelly to come to the house. Inside Dylan goes to the men's room and is stopped by Borman. He tells Dylan he'll be getting a phone call soon and he'd better do exactly as he is told.

At the Walsh house, friends have gathered to pay their respects to Dylan. Brandon and Steve try to get Dylan to slip away and shoot a few hoops of basketball but he doesn't have much interest. While guests are talking, Dylan eyes the liquor cabinet wishing he could dull his senses with a drink.

David meets with his record producer but finds the studios booked up and his recording session pushed back an hour or so. Dylan joins the others to toss a few basketballs, but his heart is still not in it. Dylan begins to hear his alter ego talking to him saying these are not his friends they are really Brandon's friends. Dylan backs away from the group. Kelly comes over to talk and express her sympathy. She lets slip the fact that today's paper had Dylan on the front page. He wants to see the newspaper but Brandon tries to protect him saying it's been thrown out.

Dylan walks to the liquor cabinet in the living room. As he reaches out, David walks in and surprises him. The voice inside Dylan tries to get him to have the drink anyway, but Dylan regains control and turns to talk with David.

Episode 071 – Page 3

David tells Dylan that he has been through this same sort of traumatic experience when his friend Scott accidentally blew his brains out, right in front of him. Dylan suggests that they go back outside with the others. At Cindy's insistence, Dylan starts to have a bite to eat but is interrupted by a phone call. Borman is on the line, and gives Dylan instructions as to where to meet him. With the press still out front, Dylan asks Brandon to bring his car around to the back and let him use it for a while. Dylan says he will explain later.

On Olvera Street, near downtown Los Angeles, Dylan wanders among the Mexican shops and restaurants waiting for his contact to find him. A black man approaches, shows his Secret Service badge, and instructs Dylan to follow. In a deserted warehouse, he meets Borman who tells him they are government agents assigned to the case. Christine is there and confesses she too works with the government. They tell Dylan, his father was part of a sting operation to catch the mob bosses. Dylan is skeptical and asks Christine if she agreed to marry his father as part of the sting operation. She says she was in love with Jack. Dylan walks away, not sure who to believe now.

As he drives away, his alter-ego starts chiding him, telling him he needs a good drink. Dylan regains control and shouts out at himself that he is not thirteen years old anymore. Back the Walsh house, Dylan talks to the press briefly saying he loved his father. He tells Brandon he needed to "clear his head." When alone, he calls Kelly to see if she's all right.

STARRING

Jason Priestley.....	Brandon Walsh
Shannon Doherty	Brenda Walsh
Carol Potter.....	Cindy Walsh
James Eckhouse	Jim Walsh
Luke Perry.....	Dylan McKay
Jennie Garth	Kelly Taylor
Ian Ziering.....	Steve Sanders
Brian Austin Green	David Silver
Doug Emerson.....	Scott Scalon
Gabrielle Carteris.....	Andrea Zuckerman
Tori Spelling	Donna Martin

EPISODE #072

“DUKE’S BAD BOY”

At school in the D.J. booth Donna is covering for David on the school radio. She chides him, on an open mike, about being late and that it is expected now that he is a big recording star. David is rushing down the hallway. He tells Donna she's "laying it on" a bit too heavy. He reminds her he is on a minimum salary at Icon Records and has only made a couple of demo recordings.

A fellow student named Jeff Stellar approaches Brandon in the corridor and tells him he can place his bets for him. Brandon is upset that his gambling habits are common knowledge and blames Steve for spreading the word.

Andrea and Brandon discuss, with school counselor, Gil Meyers, how to improve the editorial content of the school newspaper. Andrea hopes to win the national contest and a trip to Washington. Kelly and Dylan are talking as Brenda comes up to invite them to her house, for dinner. They accept the invitation.

David meets with his record producer, Serge, to hear a playback of one of his songs. David is not enthusiastic about the "seventies sound" but is hesitant to be too critical. Donna withholds her comments too.

Andrea is talking to Brandon at the Peach Pit about some newspaper editorial ideas, when Duke Weatherill, Brandon's bookie, joins them. He asks to speak to Brandon privately. Duke reminds Brandon he owes him money for his recent bad bets. Duke points over to his companion, Tony, an enforcer type, and warns Brandon he has just two days to pay up.

Cindy has served dinner to Brenda, Dylan and Kelly and is encouraging them to have more pie as Brandon arrives home from work. He says he's not hungry and besides he has studying to do. He obviously has a lot on his mind. After Dylan and Kelly leave, Cindy compliments Brenda for inviting them over.

On the way home, Kelly tries to entice Dylan to go to his house for a few hours but he puts her off, saying he's not ready to resume an emotional relationship yet. Cindy asks Jim to look in on his son. She is concerned about Brandon's loss of appetite. Jim finds Brandon looking through his valuable baseball card collection. Jim tells him he knows he places a bet occasionally on sports, but is concerned he might be "in over his head."

Episode 072 – Page 2

Donna talks to Steve about what the record company is doing to David's music. She feels they are ruining his songs. She asks Steve to help but Steve is still hurt because David fired him as his manager.

Brandon finds Jeff Stellar, the school bookie, taking a few minor bets from some of the students. He asks Stellar to place some bets for him. Stellar is surprised at the amount of money Brandon wagers. Brenda and Kelly have a brief run-in, revealing that Kelly is very tense about Dylan spending time at the Walsh house.

Brandon finds Dylan in a depressed mood and suggests they cut class and shoot a game of pool. Dylan says he knows Brandon means well, but he feels he just needs to be alone right now.

Brandon hears that Andrea wants to do an editorial on Dylan. It angers Brandon to think that Andrea is invading Dylan's privacy, just to get a good newspaper editorial. Andrea calls Dylan at home and offers to drop by, if he would like to talk. He takes her up on the offer.

At the recording session Donna is pleased to see Steve walk in, as she had asked. Serge, the record producer, takes offense to Steve's remarks about the song selected, and he is asked to leave the booth. At the Peach Pit, Brandon listens intently to a basketball game. Nat looks worried because he knows Brandon is "over his head" in his betting.

Andrea arrives at Dylan's house. Dylan serves her tea and tells her it's nice to talk to someone other than girlfriends. He doesn't have to be on his guard with her. Dylan says his father wanted him to be the man that he never was. "I used to think he was a hypocrite but near the end of his life, I learned to accept him for what he was," Dylan adds. Andrea advises him not to reject his father now. Dylan is impressed by Andrea's insight into his personal conflict. He refuses, however, to go along with a school paper profile on himself.

Brandon is ecstatic when his basketball team wins. He is now "off the hook" on his bets. As he rushes to find Jeff Stellar, the bookie, Steve cautions that Jeff may not be able to pay off the bets.

Episode 072 – Page 3

At school the next day, Stellar tells Brandon he'll bring the money by the Peach Pit, later. Kelly is frantic about gaining a few pounds, and she resorts to trying over the counter diet pills.

Dylan tells Andrea he has changed his mind about writing a personal profile, but he doesn't want her to write it. He wants to write it and maybe have her look it over later. David is not very pleased with the recording playback but Serge is delighted and thinks they have a winner.

Andrea visits Dylan and they discuss books that he has read. Andrea is impressed and tells him he should sign up for Gil Meyer's class. Jeff Stellar shows up at the Peach Pit but has some shocking news for Brandon. He is running a little short this week and can't pay off the bets. Brandon is very angry and threatens Stellar. Steve arrives in time to pull Brandon away from Jeff. They move away from the young bookie and Brandon confesses he needs fifteen hundred dollars to pay off his losses to the other bookie, Duke. Steve says he can only come up with a couple of hundred dollars.

At school, Stellar gives Brandon two hundred dollars of his winnings but this leaves Brandon still short by over one thousand.

Gil Meyers agrees to accept Dylan in his English class provided he works hard.

In a meeting with the head of Icon Records, David and Serge audition the recording. It is not well received. Serge immediately says he didn't like it either and blames David's songs. At first, David tries to explain to Mr. Bray how he wanted to do the song, but no one seems to want to listen. David's option is dropped.

Kelly is bored sitting around while Dylan writes his story. She says she's going to meet Donna at the Peach Pit. Dylan says he'll call later.

When Duke, the bookie, comes for his money, Brandon tells him he only has five hundred of the fifteen hundred dollars. Brandon asks for more time to come up with the money but Duke shakes his head. "You're lucky you have a good friend like Nat. He paid off the rest of the wager." Nat lectures Brandon about getting over-his-head in gambling.

Episode 072 – Page 4

David joins the gang at the Peach Pit to tell them the bad news. Steve tells him next time he should follow his advice. David wonders if there will be a "next time." Brandon serves up the hamburgers and fries but Kelly says she's not hungry. She slips away to the ladies room and pops two more diet pills into her mouth.

STARRING

Jason Priestley.....	Brandon Walsh
Shannon Doherty	Brenda Walsh
Carol Potter.....	Cindy Walsh
James Eckhouse	Jim Walsh
Luke Perry.....	Dylan McKay
Jennie Garth	Kelly Taylor
Ian Ziering.....	Steve Sanders
Brian Austin Green	David Silver
Doug Emerson.....	Scott Scalon
Gabrielle Carteris.....	Andrea Zuckerman
Tori Spelling	Donna Martin

EPISODE #073

“PERFECTLY PERFECT”

Still concerned that she is overweight, Kelly is up early working out on her Stairmaster exercise machine. Later, in the kitchen, she passes on breakfast since David has already consumed the last banana. Kelly settles for a diet pill and a cup of coffee. She overhears David on the phone in a rather hushed tone of voice. She begins to wonder what's going on. A surprise birthday party for her is being planned but because the real estate people are going to be in and out, it can't be held at the Taylor house. At school, David asks Donna if they can use her house. Donna says they can't because her mother will be home.

Andrea asks Dylan how his writing is coming along. Donna joins them, complaining that they have no place for Kelly's party. As Kelly joins them they quickly change the subject. Kelly begins to get paranoid that everybody's hiding something from her.

Steve is pressuring Brandon into joining him on a "dating game" show, in which beautiful girls pick out their escorts from a group of guys. Brenda tells Donna she will attend the planned party for Kelly, but she is not ready, emotionally, to host it.

Kelly asks Dylan if he has noticed that people have been acting weird and secretive. He says he hasn't noticed, but asks Kelly if she is still taking diet pills. She tells him they're harmless over-the-counter pills. He expresses concern that she is skipping meals completely. She snaps back at him, to stay off her back.

Brandon finally agrees to do the television game show with Steve. The taping will be over by seven, with plenty of time to go to Kelly's surprise party. Kelly notices her friends are still being secretive and evasive. This continues to fuel her paranoia until Steve weakens and tells her they are planning a party for her eighteenth birthday. Kelly gets angry, saying she said she didn't want a party. She promises to attend, however.

Arriving home, Kelly is tempted to eat something, but has second thoughts. The real estate broker brings in a prospective buyer, aggravating her irritability. Finally Kelly can control her emotions no longer, when they look in her closet. She shouts out at them to help themselves to the clothes and adds that maybe they'd like her boyfriend too.

Episode 073 – Page 2

At the television game show, Brandon and Steve go through a "dry run" rehearsal with the talent coordinator. Brandon meets one of the girl contestants in the hallway and they each find the other very attractive.

Kelly has a discussion with Jackie about her emotional outburst in front of the prospective buyer. This conversation, too, ends on an angry note. At the show, Brandon and Steve are selected to compete for the favors of Celeste and two other girls.

Brenda arrives home with a gift sweater she has bought for Kelly. She tells her mother that Kelly will probably return it to the store. She discusses her old friends in Minnesota, with her mother, and wonders what they are doing. Brenda arrives early at the Peach Pit party, to help get things ready.

Dylan stops by to pick up Kelly, but finds she is not dressed yet. She complains that she can't find her other shoe and then announces she is not going at all. Her mother calms down Kelly and in a few minutes she's ready to leave, having surreptitiously popped two more diet pills.

The game show taping continues with Steve becoming more upset, as he feels that Brandon is trying to win a date with Celeste. In the final round of the game, Steve wins Celeste and their date begins. Steve, however, is troubled. He didn't realize his winning date began immediately. He had promised Kelly to attend her birthday party.

On the way to the Peach Pit, Kelly begins to have alarming symptoms that something is wrong physically. Arriving at the Peach Pit, Kelly pretends to be totally surprised about the birthday party.

In the limousine, Celeste is touched by Steve's concern at missing his friends' eighteenth birthday. She offers to rush their date so he'll still have time to stop by the party.

Kelly excuses herself, to go to the restroom. She says she'll be right back but actually she feels very strangely. Brenda goes to get Kelly for the cake cutting, and finds her collapsed on the floor, unconscious.

Episode 073 – Page 3

Steve arrives too late. The crowd is gone and Brandon tells him what has happened. The group is at the hospital waiting for word about Kelly's condition. The doctor tells Jackie that her daughter was taking double doses of the appetite control pills and surviving on what amounted to a starvation diet. He tries to get her to sign up for an Eating Disorder group at the hospital, but Kelly doesn't feel such a program is right for her. The gang all comes in to see Kelly, including Steve, to wish her well.

Brenda remains with Kelly for a few minutes alone. She tells her how much she's missed her friendship. Outside, she says goodnight to Dylan, but it sounds more like a final "goodbye."

STARRING

Jason Priestley.....	Brandon Walsh
Shannon Doherty	Brenda Walsh
Carol Potter.....	Cindy Walsh
James Eckhouse	Jim Walsh
Luke Perry.....	Dylan McKay
Jennie Garth	Kelly Taylor
Ian Ziering.....	Steve Sanders
Brian Austin Green	David Silver
Doug Emerson.....	Scott Scalon
Gabrielle Carteris.....	Andrea Zuckerman
Tori Spelling	Donna Martin

EPISODE #074

“SENIOR POLL”

Kelly arrives for her first visit to the Eating Disorder Therapy Group. She is shocked at the emaciated teenage girls in the room. The psychologist, Melissa Stanza, asks Kelly to tell her story. She is still defensive and says she was just taking simple diet pills but Melissa tells her that the problem is far from simple.

At home, Kelly begs her mother to cancel the therapy. She promises to eat normally again.

At school, the winners of the Senior Poll are soon to be announced. Brandon tells Brenda such polls can damage a student's confidence, but Brenda thinks they're fun and harmless. Steve passes by complaining about detention class and the fact somebody put graffiti all over his books. He and Brandon plan to attend a basketball game on Friday but haven't found dates yet.

Kelly finds Dylan alone in a quiet place, busy writing his story. She is still anxious to read it, but Dylan says it's not ready. He starts to walk away. She tries to get him to stay around for the Senior Poll results but he says he has no interest in it.

Dylan drops off the first chapter of his story to Andrea, to get her opinion. She is flattered by his attention. Brandon dashes in to ask if any of the Poll results have been announced.

It is finally time for the announcement of the winners. Several members of the group are first prize winners, including Donna for "Best Dressed," David "Most Talented," Brandon and Andrea, "Most Likely to Succeed." Steve hoped to win, "Biggest Flirt," but loses out. Dylan wins "Most Handsome" and finally Kelly is announced as "Most Beautiful."

Andrea calls Dylan to compliment him on his writing. She has made some comments in the margin, but overall, it is very good, she says.

Kelly arrives at Dylan's house to tell him he has been voted "Most Handsome" and she has won as "Most Beautiful." She says they want the winners to pose for pictures the next day and she feels they should wear formal dress. At first, Dylan rejects the idea of dressing up in a tuxedo but mellows as Kelly turns on her sexy charm.

Episode 074 – Page 2

Brandon drops into Brenda's room. They discuss his trying to find a date for Friday. He spots an application for the University of Minnesota on her desk. He quizzes her about it, since a few months ago they agreed they would both attend a local college, because of the costs. Brenda hedges, saying she is just keeping her options open. She admits she hasn't discussed it with their parents yet.

Brandon tells his father he has two extra tickets for the Lakers basketball game on Friday. Maybe his father and mother would like to join him and Steve. Kelly is trying to decide on the right dress for the photographs. Jackie helps her do a special eye makeup. Kelly says this photo session isn't that important, but Jackie reminds her that her own high school photograph propelled her into a modeling career in New York.

As the students, who won the Senior Poll, gather for the special photo session, Brandon tells Steve that he's invited his mother and father to attend the basketball game with them. Steve is far less than enthusiastic over this turn of events.

In the ladies room, Andrea finds all the winners lined up to get to the mirrors. Kelly is as nervous as ever and complains that no one takes the winner of "Most Beautiful," serious. She's always considered an "air-head." Andrea mentions that judging from what Dylan is writing about her, he certainly takes her seriously. Kelly is surprised and rather hurt that Dylan refused to let her see his writing but let Andrea read it. Kelly confronts Dylan, saying he values her only as a sex object, but not for her mind. She blows up and storms away.

At home, Jackie tells Kelly that Dylan called. Kelly says she doesn't care if he did and also she did not do the photo session. She and her mother begin to argue. Kelly shouts that since she was twelve her mother has been trying to make her over into something else. There was weight watchers and then at fifteen, a nose job. She blames Jackie for making her into a shallow, insecure person whose only interest was beauty and fashion. She rushes out of the house.

Brenda tries to borrow fifty dollars from Brandon for her application fee to the University of Minnesota. He doesn't have the money and suggests she ask their parents. The application has to be mailed by midnight, she says.

Episode 074 – Page 3

Brenda has now asked her father for the money, just as they are leaving for the basketball game. He is furious about this last minute decision by Brenda. Steve is upset that they are going to be late for the game. At the game, at last, an usher approaches. Steve's ticket stub has the lucky number. He gets to try to shoot a basket from half court. He could win ten thousand dollars.

Kelly's disappearance has David and Dylan worried. David lets slip that Kelly was in an Eating Disorder Group. Dylan is very surprised. Jim and Brandon go down to the court with Steve to try to get him calm. While waiting Jim asks Brandon if he knew about Brenda's college plans. He admits he found out only when she wanted to borrow the money for the fee. Jim is disappointed his children aren't confiding in him anymore.

Steve is on the court ready to try the throw. He sends the ball in a high arc and it drops through the hoop. The crowd goes wild and Steve is stunned.

Dylan finds Kelly at the elementary school yard swings, where they first met each other. Kelly is still in a depressed mood and suggests Dylan leave and go back to Brenda. But Dylan persists recognizing the loss of self-confidence Kelly is going through. He's been there himself, many times

Brenda discusses her insecurities with her parents and tells them why she feels she needs to go to Minnesota. Her friends there were real people she could trust, she adds. Kelly returns home and has a mother-daughter talk with Jackie. Kelly admits everything in her life hasn't been bad. She and Jackie decided to seek professional help with their relationship.

Steve is still riding a high over making the basketball long shot and winning ten thousand dollars. Mrs. Teasley receives a gift of ten thousand dollars, so the kid's summer camp won't have to be dropped. The gift is anonymous and no one suspects that Steve is the donor.

At school, Kelly has calmed down and joins Dylan to have their photographs taken for the Class Annual. Dylan surprises Kelly by handing her his manuscript and asking her to read it. Steve is telling everybody who will listen, a blow by blow account of his basketball skills. Kelly begins to leaf through Dylan's manuscript, being especially pleased with the inscription, "Dedicated to Kelly Taylor," on the inside cover.

Episode 074 – Page 4

STARRING

Jason Priestley.....	Brandon Walsh
Shannon Doherty	Brenda Walsh
Carol Potter.....	Cindy Walsh
James Eckhouse	Jim Walsh
Luke Perry.....	Dylan McKay
Jennie Garth	Kelly Taylor
Ian Ziering.....	Steve Sanders
Brian Austin Green	David Silver
Doug Emerson.....	Scott Scalon
Gabrielle Carteris.....	Andrea Zuckerman
Tori Spelling	Donna Martin

EPISODE #075

“SHE CAME IN THROUGH THE BATHROOM WINDOW”

David and Donna are on microphone, promoting the sale of tickets to Senior Ditch-School Day at Magic Mountain, by giving a description of the hair-raising roller coaster ride.

Donna and Andrea are tabulating the ticket sales as Kelly rushes over to buy a ticket for Senior Ditch-Day. She says she's going alone because Dylan has to retake his S.A.T. test. Brenda praises Dylan for deciding to do the test again. Steve kids Dylan about getting points just for spelling his name correctly. Steve adds he can't go on the trip to the amusement park because he is still on detention.

Later at the Peach Pit, Brandon and Steve talk about Dylan's decision to take the S.A.T.'s because his father had asked him to do it. An attractive young woman named, Ginger O'Hara, approaches Brandon. Nat joins them and Ginger tells him she's from Parnell Celebrity Tours, here to arrange for the tour group's breakfast next day. It's a Burt Reynolds Fan Club of twenty people from Arizona and they have a tight schedule. Nat says he's fed most of the stars when they were beginners. Burt Reynolds was a regular customer, he adds.

Brandon gets a call from Nat, saying he is ill with the flu and he wants Brandon to handle the early breakfast for the tour group.

Next day the seniors board the bus and head for Magic Mountain. Steve tells Kelly he plans to attend Ditch Day festivities by slipping out of detention early and then rushing back in time for afternoon detention. Kelly thinks he's crazy to take a chance of getting expelled again.

Steve stops by the Peach Pit to pick up Brandon, but finds the Fan Club has not arrived yet. Suddenly, Ginger arrives with a large group of fans in tow, ready for breakfast. Dylan offers to help take food orders and Brandon cooks. Steve pitches in, too.

At the amusement park everyone is anxious to get to the giant roller coaster, except Andrea. She has brought along some office work to do so she has an excuse. At the Peach Pit, the fan club members have finished eating and Brandon has totaled up the bill. He goes looking for Ginger and finds her sobbing in the restroom. The film screening room never heard of Parnell Tours. There's been a big mix-up and she can't reach Mr. Parnell by phone.

Episode 075 – Page 2

He was supposed to be here to pay the bill, she says. Outside, the fan club members are getting very restless. This was a pre-paid tour. Steve's tries to appease them by offering to have his mother, the star of "Hartley House" come by, but the club wants Burt Reynolds. Most of the group has just gotten off the roller coaster. Brenda, Donna, David, Kelly and Tony Miller try to talk Andrea into taking a ride but she confesses she is terrified of heights.

Steve remembers that his mother knows Burt Reynolds from when she did a role in a movie with him. Dylan tries to make it clear to Ginger that Steve tends to exaggerate about most everything. Steve becomes a bit angry with Dylan and while they argue Ginger climbs out of the bathroom window and disappears in Brandon's Mustang car. Dylan and Steve take out after her and finally succeed in cutting her off so she has to stop. Ginger says she was trying to get to Parnell's office to get the whole mess straightened out. Steve and Dylan decide to drive her to Parnell's office.

As they are buying snack food, Kelly discovers her wallet is missing. Later the wallet is found near where the bus is parked, but all her money and credit cards are gone. Mr. Parnell's office address turns out to be a vacant lot. Ginger says she got the job over the phone, and has never met Parnell.

Kelly reports her stolen wallet but says she won't allow the thief to steal her "fun" too. Andrea stays behind when the others head for some new rides, still not able to overcome her fears.

Steve calls his mother and asks her to help in locating Burt Reynolds. While Steve is telephoning, Dylan and Ginger have a discussion about their pasts, where they come from and where they may be going. Steve rushes up to join them. He has located Burt Reynolds.

At the amusement park, Andrea confesses to Donna that maybe it's just a fear of the unknown that keeps her from riding the roller coaster. Donna tells her the ride is awesome. "It's like what she imagines sex with your lover is like," she says. Andrea confesses she almost had sex with Brandon once, but the timing was wrong.

Steve, Dylan and Ginger put on a costume for a "dental" commercial in order to get on the sound stage only to find Burt Reynolds finished his filming hours before. The Assistant tells them Burt has gone to Rossmore Sound.

Episode 075 – Page 3

A policeman approaches Brandon's Mustang, as Steve, Dylan and Ginger are entering. The car was reported stolen. They are arrested.

At the police station, Steve calls Brandon to report what has happened. Brandon has his hands full of over fifty very impatient fans waiting for Burt Reynolds to arrive.

Suddenly Dylan notices the time and reminds Steve he had better get back to school detention right away. If he misses detention he may not be able to graduate. But Steve feels he can't let all those fans down who are waiting to see Burt Reynolds. Dylan goes back to school and answers up when Steve's name is called.

At the amusement park, Donna is sitting alone, waiting for some of the group to finish a ride, when suddenly a young guy grabs her purse. Donna fights back, decking him with fists and kicks. Andrea rushes up with park guards to haul away the mugger.

Steve finds Burt is not at Rossmore Sound, either. Ginger says they could skip town and go to Las Vegas. Steve is baffled as to how they can do this without money. Ginger admits the whole thing is a scam between her and Parnell to rip off tourists.

As Ginger is apologizing to the fan club at the Peach Pit, Burt Reynolds walks in. The apprehended mugger turns out to be a student from West Beverly. They recover Kelly's credit cards too. The group returns to the Peach Pit. Andrea is raving about her roller coaster ride. Unnoticed by everybody, Ginger makes her way toward the restrooms.

A bald headed man storms in, demanding to know if anybody there has seen a girl named Maria Crawford. Steve and Dylan exchange eye contact with Brandon and shake their heads. Maria stole $5,000 of his money, he says. He hands them his business card that reads, "J. Thomas Parnell - Celebrity Tours."

In the restroom, Dylan, Steve and Brandon find the bathroom window open and Ginger is no where to be found.

Episode 075 – Page 4

STARRING

Jason Priestley.....	Brandon Walsh
Shannon Doherty	Brenda Walsh
Carol Potter.....	Cindy Walsh
James Eckhouse	Jim Walsh
Luke Perry.....	Dylan McKay
Jennie Garth	Kelly Taylor
Ian Ziering.....	Steve Sanders
Brian Austin Green	David Silver
Doug Emerson.....	Scott Scalon
Gabrielle Carteris.....	Andrea Zuckerman
Tori Spelling	Donna Martin

EPISODE #076

“A NIGHT TO REMEMBER”

Brenda and Donna are putting up a banner promoting the Senior Prom. Donna is a bit sad to be graduating, but Brenda says she can hardly wait. Donna can't believe Brenda doesn't have a date for the prom. Steve is still trying to convince Brandon he should ask Andrea to attend the dance as his date. When Brandon approaches Andrea to ask her, he ends up getting a school newspaper reporting assignment instead.

David tells Brenda she's invited to his father's prom night party, but she says she probably won't come because she has no date. David tells Donna about his romantic plans for the two of them at the Bel Age Hotel. It will be a "night to remember." Donna hedges a bit, saying she's not sure she's comfortable with his plans.

At home, the Walshs are reminiscing about their high school days. Cindy suggests to Brandon that he take Brenda to the prom, since neither has a date. The idea is not well received by either Brenda or Brandon. Brandon suggests to Brenda that she call Rick, her former boyfriend. When she calls, she finds he has a new girl friend.

Steven and Brandon are talking with school jock, Tony Miller, about the high cost of taking a girl to the dance. Tony says he and some buddies have a poker game planned, instead. He invites Brandon to join them. Dylan and Kelly are late for school, still dallying over breakfast and romantic small talk. Dylan invites Kelly to go to San Francisco with him after the prom. He has to go by UC Berkeley campus for an interview.

At the school board meeting, Andrea joins Brandon in reporting on the agenda. Andrea gets riled up over the discussion of a school dress code. Andrea challenges the board over this issue but the motion is passed. The board also passes a ruling on intoxication at school sponsored functions.

At the Peach Pit, Brandon and Andrea tell the others about the school board meeting. Donna says she is not surprised to hear her mother was there. She plans to run for the office of mayor and is trying to get as much exposure as possible.

Episode 076 – Page 2

Andrea disappoints Brandon by telling him she's attending the prom with Jordan. Jordan joins them to announce that he will give the valedictorian address at his school. Andrea is hoping her grade average makes her valedictorian at West Beverly.

Donna talks to her mother about the new dress code Mrs. Martin helped to pass. She and her mother don't see eye to eye on this issue. Donna adds that she plans to stay over at Kelly's house on Prom Night. Her mother says that is ok and to have fun.

Mrs. Teasley discusses the dress code issue with a group of students, saying that personally she does not approve of such rules. Andrea asks if she has been selected as valedictorian, but Mrs. Teasley says she has a very strong contender named Joey Wong.

Tony Miller tells Brandon the poker game is cancelled because he's going to go to the prom. As his date, he has asked Brenda.

Even though Dylan is worried about being accepted by UC Berkeley, Mr. Meyers has set the meeting with Professor Jameson and offered some encouragement. Meyers reminds the class about the new rules regarding the use of drugs or alcohol at the prom, adding that offenders will not be allowed to graduate.

Brenda arrives home with her new prom dress and rushes upstairs to get ready for her date. Kelly, with her mother's approval, packs her bag for the San Francisco trip with Dylan. Donna's mother gets out a gold chain and cross that her daughter has always admired, but Donna is not sure it is appropriate to wear on the night she plans to lose her virginity. The party at Mel's condo is just beginning. A champagne toast is made and Donna drinks her first glass of wine.

At the Peach Pit, Brandon is on duty, since he has no date for the prom. Andrea calls to say Jordan has the flu and can't take her. She wonders if Brandon would still want to go with her. Brandon is delighted. At Mel's party, all the gang has arrived and is drinking champagne toasts to the Class of 1993. Donna confesses to David that she is very nervous about tonight's romantic plans. She decides to have another glass of champagne.

Episode 076 – Page 3

The whole gang enters the hotel ballroom arm-in-arm. The tables have souvenir place cards with a quarter attached, in case anyone needs to call a cab, and a condom, for protection. They all join in playful joking. Donna is beginning to show some signs of inebriation but only David has noticed, so far. As everybody is dancing, the others begin to realize Donna has really "loosened up." David takes her out on the terrace for some air as she complains of nausea.

Steve asks Kelly for a dance. They whirl around the floor, reminiscing about old times. Steve says that he's happy that she is happy with Dylan. Across the room Dylan finds Brenda alone and asks her for a dance.

Kelly finds Donna throwing up in the ladies room and runs to find Brenda. Brandon asks Andrea if she wants to check out the bedrooms in the hotel. Andrea is surprised and flattered.

The group makes plans to get Donna out of the hotel without anyone noticing she's intoxicated. As they cross the lobby, Mrs. Teasley approaches, surprised they are leaving so early. She realizes Donna is drunk and they all know what the school board regulation is regarding drinking. This may turn out to be a "night to forget."

STARRING

Jason Priestley.....	Brandon Walsh
Shannon Doherty	Brenda Walsh
Carol Potter.....	Cindy Walsh
James Eckhouse	Jim Walsh
Luke Perry.....	Dylan McKay
Jennie Garth	Kelly Taylor
Ian Ziering.....	Steve Sanders
Brian Austin Green	David Silver
Doug Emerson.....	Scott Scalon
Gabrielle Carteris.....	Andrea Zuckerman
Tori Spelling	Donna Martin

EPISODE #077

“SOMETHING IN THE AIR”

The whole school is buzzing with the story of Donna getting drunk at the prom. Donna joins David in the school radio booth and asks if she can hide out there. She is so embarrassed and fearful that the school board will not allow her to graduate with her class, she says.

Meyers tells Dylan, Professor Jameson at UC Berkeley was very impressed with him. Dylan will still have to get good grades on his final exams, however. Donna joins the others while they are being fitted for graduation gowns. Andrea and Brandon are discussing the fact that they never got up to the hotel room. Andrea has mixed feelings about still being a virgin.

Donna is joined in Mrs. Teasley's office by her parents, Doctor Martin and Felice Martin. Mr. Ephardt, the school superintendent tells them the decision, regarding expulsion for Donna, will be up to the School Board when it meets tonight. Some of the underclassmen on the school newspaper want to publish the whole story, but Andrea is opposed, until a final verdict is handed down.

Jackie calls Mel and tells him he is to blame for the whole mess. He should not have served alcohol to minors. David and Kelly defend Mel saying he didn't force anyone to drink champagne.

Donna calls from the school board meeting to tell the group at the Peach Pit she's been suspended and must attend summer school in order to graduate in the fall. Dylan and Kelly are studying together at his house. Kelly is worried about Donna and also that their house has been sold. Packing and moving is not something she's looking forward to doing.

David and Mel stop by the Walshes to tell them they are going to see the Martins. Mel wants to apologize for what he's done. At the Martin's, Mel suggests that they appeal the board's decision. Donna's apparent drunkenness may have been caused by a virus infection or something she ate, he tells them. When Felice Martin says everything has been done that can be done, Donna says her mother is just getting even with her because she caught her having an affair. Donna says she forgave her mother's indiscretion. Now her mother ought to forgive her mistake.

The Martin's change their minds and decide to appeal Donna's suspension. The group is asked to write letters to the school board, on Donna's behalf. Meyers tells Brandon that a demonstration would probably be more effective.

Episode 077 – Page 2

Brandon goes to his father's office to ask his opinion regarding a demonstration. His father is uncertain that this will be effective.

While some of the students are not sure about demonstrating, instead of taking their final examinations, Brandon suggests that if all the students stood together, the school would have to reschedule the exams. The group starts phoning all the seniors, requesting their supports. Tobi and Howard, two juniors, want the demonstration to include revocation of the dress code ruling.

Next day in class, at exactly ten o'clock, hundreds of students walk out and head for the school board meeting. As Donna takes the stand to explain her side of the incident and to apologize to the board, chanting is heard from outside, "Donna Martin graduates!" "Donna Martin graduates!" Andrea serves as spokesperson for the students at the board hearing, saying they are here in support of Donna Martin.

School superintendent Ephardt is not in favor of giving in to this "mob" of students. He sends a note to the crowd, "to cease this demonstration immediately or they will all be suspended." The crowd, however, is determined and begins to chant again.

Brandon goes inside and demands to be heard, over the objections of Ephardt. Brandon tells the board that Donna had never had an alcoholic beverage before and didn't realize what she was doing. He adds that the dress code ruling needs to be reviewed, too. The board rules in favor of dropping the charges against Donna. The final exams are re-scheduled and Donna will be able to graduate with the class.

Episode 077 – Page 3

STARRING

Jason Priestley.....	Brandon Walsh
Shannon Doherty	Brenda Walsh
Carol Potter.....	Cindy Walsh
James Eckhouse	Jim Walsh
Luke Perry.....	Dylan McKay
Jennie Garth	Kelly Taylor
Ian Ziering.....	Steve Sanders
Brian Austin Green	David Silver
Doug Emerson.....	Scott Scalon
Gabrielle Carteris.....	Andrea Zuckerman
Tori Spelling	Donna Martin

EPISODE #078

“COMMENCEMENT”

The whole group is gathered on a hilltop overlooking Hollywood. Steve is trying to drum up support from them to do something they will always remember. Slowly they all agree to join Steve in his plan for "grad night."

At the school quad, seniors are going through a less than enthusiastic graduation ceremony rehearsal. Brandon sees a bleary-eyed David, who has been taking six final exams in three days, so he can graduate with the others. Steve is a bit worried because Mrs. Teasley has him in detention, all alone. He thinks the school has decided not to graduate him.

Jim Walsh and Dylan have a quiet discussion over a fast-food lunch. Jim tells him his mother, Iris, has authorized the lawyers to give the inheritance check to Dylan, closing out the trust.

As the final day of school comes to an end, it is greeted in a variety of ways. David, still brain-fried from cramming for exams, notices his D.J. replacement in the school radio booth. Steve faces Mrs. Teasley in her office and is prepared for the worse. He is dumbfounded when she compliments him on his improved grades and reveals that she knows he made the secret gift to the Alvarado Street Summer Fund. She will write a letter of recommendation for him to any college he wants.

Brandon finds Andrea in the newspaper office "fine tuning" her valedictorian speech. He tells her he'll listen to it later, if she'd like.

Everyone but Andrea is at the Peach Pit for a last "hang" before graduation. They discuss the senior "wills" that will be distributed at the Senior Breakfast. (Flashback to Jim Walsh with his karaoke machine and the gang singing along.) The group kids Nat as to what he would "will" to someone else. He says it definitely would be that karaoke machine. (Flashback to a scene in which Brenda pretended to be Laverne, a "hash house" waitress.) Jordon drops by to see Andrea. He tells Brandon that Andrea is having second thoughts about going to Yale.

At the Walsh home, Cindy tells Brenda she has a letter from the University of Minnesota. Brenda has been accepted but now she's not sure she wants to leave town and all her friends.

Episode 078 – Page 2

At Kelly's house, she and her mother are sorting through clothes, making a decision as to what to save and what to toss. Kelly is nervous about facing so many changes in her life, including moving, and a new school life. David and Kelly reminisce about when Jackie and Mel first dated and then David moved in with Kelly and her mother and Mel.

Brandon listens to Andrea's pretentious speech then tells her she should just say how she feels in her heart and not what she thinks the teachers and parents expect her to say. Andrea tells Brandon what a good friend he has been to her. Andrea tells him she may not go to Yale, but instead attend California University here in town.

Kelly arrives at Dylan's house to find him reading the California University catalogue. He tells Kelly they could have a lot of fun going to the same college. The doorbell rings and they are surprised to see Iris, Dylan's mother. She's here to attend Dylan's graduation. She kids Dylan that half the fun of a surprise visit is catching him with his girlfriends. Dylan is still upset with his mother over the fact that she didn't attend his father's funeral. Dylan offers to call a hotel for her. He puts the cost on his credit card.

At West Beverly High, final preparations are being made for the Senior Breakfast. Steve tries to cheer up a worried Andrea by reminding her of their date at the Underground Club and the "egg exchange." It works and Andrea's mood brightens. In her "Senior Will" to Kelly, Brenda leaves their "double date from hell" with Wayne and Adam, the two geeks from Princeton prep school. Donna's "will" to Brenda is the dinner of "calf brains" they had in Paris.

David and Donna are on stage entertaining the Senior Breakfast crowd. The audience loves their routine. David makes a special award to Steve of a "legacy key." Everybody laughs. They show a video of some of the highlights of the "camping trip" to the mountains. There are videos showing Kelly and Brenda taking skydiving lessons and another tape of Brandon as a soap opera star followed by Brandon kissing different girls. They close the show with David winning the dance contest when he attended the junior prom.

It's six hours until graduation. Everybody is beginning to feel a little misty eyed. In the Walsh backyard the gang is putting the finishing touches on their gift to the Class of 1993. They are applying paint to a huge canvas, stretched out across the lawn. As they work they discuss Andrea's decision not to go east to college.

Episode 078 – Page 3

In the house, Cindy and Jim flashback to the time they left Brandon and Brenda home alone. They threw a wild party and Brandon got drunk. The Walshs carry out drinks and snacks to the gang but they are not allowed to see the project being painted.

The gang takes a break from work and Steve and Brandon toss a few basketballs. They recall some of their experiences together. Donna has a final session with the counselor about her drinking at the prom. Donna mentions she might go to California University with the others and study political science.

David tells Kelly he wonders if he's making a mistake to leave high school so soon. He says he'll miss the good times and his old friend Scott. Kelly calls Dylan to say she's going for a manicure and she'll see him later. We see that Brenda is there with Dylan.

Dylan and Brenda discuss what their relationship might be if there were no girl named Kelly. They reminisce about their first kiss, the trip to Baja and getting trapped at the Border. They talk about when Brenda moved in with Dylan and that perhaps, that was "too much, too soon" in their romance. Their discussion is interrupted by the doorbell. It's Iris, Dylan's mother. She says she's ready to either attend his graduation or head straight to the airport and back to Hawaii. Iris is delighted to find Brenda there with her son.

Kelly is preparing to leave for the graduation ceremonies. She tells her mother she loves Dylan but he doesn't seem to want her to move in with him. Brenda and Brandon are getting dressed for the ceremonies. They talk about some of their experiences over the last three years and Brenda thanks him for always being there for her.

The gang has arrived at the school quad and are a bit nervous about the ceremonies. Steve says his mother is signing autographs and his father came with his new wife and children. Dylan gets a shock when he thinks he sees his dead father in the crowd. Andrea is still worrying about her valedictorian speech. Donna tells everybody how thankful she is that they all testified for her at the school board hearing, otherwise she wouldn't be graduating.

Episode 078 – Page 4

The students get in line as "Pomp and Circumstance March" begins to play. Suddenly, Andrea realizes she has lost the copy of her speech. She is terrified.

As Andrea stands before the mike she reverts back to her original prepared speech, but then she turns it around and begins to speak from her heart, instead of stilted platitudes. Later, as each of the gang accepts the diploma, there is a flashback to an important landmark in their lives. After the ceremony there are hugs and kisses and posing for photographs everyone is in a joyous mood.

Dylan stops by the Walsh house later, to tell Jim he wants him to manage his money for him. First, he does plan a trip to Europe for the summer.

In the Hollywood Hills, the whole gang has gathered overlooking the lights of the city. They discuss their future plans. Brenda surprises them by saying she's decided to attend the University of Minnesota. Andrea plans to enroll at Yale, after all, even though she'll miss seeing Brandon, she adds. Dylan says he's not sure yet about college. He's going to bum around Europe for the summer, first. Then he turns to Kelly and invites her to come with him.

After putting their banner in place across the huge "Hollywood" sign, they wait for the rising sun to light it. At last, there is their handiwork glowing in the sunlight, in huge letters above the city below: "W. BEV. HF93."

STARRING

Jason Priestley.....	Brandon Walsh
Shannon Doherty	Brenda Walsh
Carol Potter.....	Cindy Walsh
James Eckhouse	Jim Walsh
Luke Perry.....	Dylan McKay
Jennie Garth	Kelly Taylor
Ian Ziering.....	Steve Sanders
Brian Austin Green	David Silver
Doug Emerson.....	Scott Scalon
Gabrielle Carteris.....	Andrea Zuckerman
Tori Spelling	Donna Martin